ALASKA TEAMS SHAKING UP THE STANDINGS: One of the conference's Alaska teams is finally playing some games while the other is finally finding a winning combination.

Alaska Anchorage almost didn't play any games in January thanks to a series of postponements due to health and safety protocols. Since returning to the floor on Jan. 27, the Seawolves have gone 3-2 and enter the week with a 5-3 conference record.

The Seawolves helped their cause with a pair of solid wins at home last week, moving into second place in the GNAC Points Rating System standings. On Thursday, UAA held Simon Fraser to 41.1 percent shooting in a 71-59 win over Simon Fraser.

After having lost in overtime at Western Washington last Monday, the Seawolves got their revenge on Saturday with an 81-75 victory. The team shot 50 percent from the floor and was solid with its inside game, scoring 42 points in the paint.

Senior forward Oggie Pantovic was named the GNAC Men's Basketball of the Week after he averaged 24 points, 8.3 rebounds and 3.7 assists per game in the three contests. Pantovic scored 20 points in the first meeting with WWU, 22 points against Simon Fraser and had a season-high 30 points in the second meeting with the Vikings.

For all of its adversity, Alaska is finding some mojo in February. The Nanooks have won three straight games, which included two wins last week where UAF had only six players available. With the GNAC's leading scorer, Shadeed Shabazz, not available, the Nanooks proceeded to take an 81-75 victory from Western Washington on Thursday and a 64-59 win from Simon Fraser on Saturday.

The short-handed effort landed Alaska as the selection for GNAC Team of the Week. The win streak continued on Monday with the Nanooks scoring a 62-36 win over Montana State Billings. The 36 points allowed were the second-fewest in a conference game in GNAC history. The Nanooks held Yellowjackets' to a .216 field goal percentage, tying the conference game record for field goal defense.

Senior guard Quin Barnard stepped up big in the three games, averaging 18.3 points per game and shooting 50 percent from three-point range.

With the multiple postponements in December and January due to health and safety protocols, the majority of the conference's teams will play a three-game week. That includes the Seawolves, who will host Montana State Billings on Tuesday before traveling to Northwest Nazarene on Thursday and Central Washington on Saturday.

The Nighthawks will play three at home, including a Tuesday contest against Saint Martin's and a Saturday meeting with Alaska. Central Washington also plays three at home, hosting Western Washington on Tuesday, Alaska on Thursday and UAA on Saturday.

ALL-TOURNAMENT PERFORMERS: The following GNAC players have earned all-tournament team honors during the 2021-22 season...

PacWest/GNAC Challenge (Nov. 12-13 at Honolulu): Quin Barnard (UAF), David Rowlands (UAA), Tobin Karlberg (UAA).

Chuck Randall Classic (Nov. 19-20 at Bellingham): Jalen Green (WWU, Most Valuable Player), Daniel Hornbuckle (WWU), D'Angelo Minnis (WWU), Luke Lovelady (WWU), Divant'e Moffit (SPU), Harry Cavell (SPU), Zack Paulsen (SPU).

Seawolf Thanksgiving Classic (Nov. 27 & 28, Anchorage): Oggie Pantovic (UAA, Most Outstanding Player), Tobin Karlberg (UAA), Shadeed Shabazz (UAF), Coleman Sparling (UAF), Hunter Sweet (UAA).

Around The GNAC

ALASKA

- After going 1-4 in January, Alaska has won its last three games at home. The Nanooks downed Western Washington on Thursday, 81-75, and beat Simon Fraser on Saturday, 64-59. They made it three straight with a 62-36 win on Monday over Montana State Billings.
- The Nanooks played the Thursday and Saturday games with just six available players and without the conference's leading scorer, senior guard Shadeed Shabazz. The short-handed effort earned UAF selection as the GNAC Team of the Week.
- The 36 points allowed against Montana State Billings on Monday is the second-fewest in a conference game in GNAC history and two points short of the record of 34 set by Seattle Pacific against MSUB in 2008. The .216 field goal percentage allowed tied the conference game record set by Western Washington against Saint Martin's in 2013.
- Senior guard Quin Barnard was the prime mover in the offense, averaging 18.3 points per game and shooting 50 percent from three-point range. Barnard posted a season-high 31 points against WWU. He added an 18-point performance against SFU and six against MSUB. Barnard is averaging 14.1 points per game. He is third in the GNAC and ninth in Division II with a .464 three-point percentage.
- Senior forward Coleman Sparling averaged 13.7 points and 12 rebounds per game, with double-doubles of 10 points and 15 rebounds against WWU and 11 points and 10 rebounds against SFU.
- Alaska enters the week averaging 75.8 points and 33.1 rebounds per game. The Nanooks are second in the GNAC and 24th in Division II with a .389 three-point percentage.
- The Nanooks play at Central Washington on Thursday and Northwest Nazarene on Saturday.

ALASKA ANCHORAGE

- After opening the week with a 93-91 overtime loss at Western Washington, Alaska Anchorage swept a pair of games at home last week, scoring a 71-59 win over Simon Fraser on Thursday and an 81-75 win over Western Washington on Saturday.
- Senior forward Oggie Pantovic was named the GNAC Player of the Week after he averaged 24 points, 8.3 rebounds and 3.7 assists per game in the wins. Pantovic finished with 20 points and nine rebounds in Monday's game at WWU. Against SFU, Pantovic led all scorers with 22 points on 10 of 13 from the field to go with nine rebounds. He then scored 30 points with seven rebounds and six assists against WWU. Pantovic is seventh in the GNAC in scoring at 16.2 points per game and is third with 8.9 rebounds per game. He leads the conference with 6.36 defensive rebounds per game.
- Junior guard Tobin Karlberg averaged 16.3 points per game and shot 51.5 percent from the floor. Karlberg led the Seawolves with 22 points at WWU on Monday on 8 of 14 from the field and 5 of 9 from three-point range. Karlberg added a 14-point performance against SFU and 13 points against WWU on Saturday. Karlberg is sixth in the GNAC in scoring with 17 points per game and is sixth in the GNAC with a .833 free-throw percentage.
- Alaska Anchorage is averaging 77.1 points per game and 34 rebounds per game. The Seawolves lead the GNAC and rank 11th in Division II with 17.7 assists per game. The team also leads the GNAC and is 11th in Division II with 10.5 three-pointers made per game.
- The Seawolves have another three-game week this week, hosting Montana State Billings on Tuesday before playing at Northwest Nazarene on Thursday and Central Washington on Saturday.

CENTRAL WASHINGTON

- Central Washington split its games last week, taking a 94-83 loss to Saint Martin's on Tuesday before scoring a 93-70 victory over Northwest Nazarene on Thursday.
- Senior guard Xavier Smith led the Wildcats, averaging 17.5 points and six rebounds in the two games, shooting 56 percent from the field. Smith led all scorers with 29 points at Saint Martin's, shooting 12 of 17 from the field, to go with six rebounds. He added six points against Northwest Nazarene to go with another six boards. Smith is third in the GNAC in scoring with 18.9 points per game.
- Senior forward Marqus Gilson averaged 16.5 points and 6.5 rebounds in the two games, shooting 60 percent from the field. Gilson scored 11 points with eight rebounds against Saint Martin's before leading the Wildcats with 22 points against Northwest Nazarene on 10 of 16 from the field. Gilson is averaging 14.4 points per game and is second in the GNAC with a .592 field goal percentage.
- Senior guard David Thompson and junior forward Matt Poquette each averaged 12.5 points per game. Poquette led his week with a 13-point performance against Saint Martin's. Thompson's week was topped by a 19-point game against Northwest Nazarene.
- Central Washington leads the GNAC in scoring at 84.8 points per game while averaging 36.2 rebounds per game. The Wildcats are second in the GNAC and 18th in Division II with a .772 free-throw percentage and a .496 field goal percentage.
- The Wildcats also have a three-game week in store, concluding a five-game homestand against Western Washington on Tuesday, Alaska on Thursday and Alaska Anchorage on Saturday.

MONTANA STATE BILLINGS

- Montana State Billings swept its road games last week, collecting an 80-69 victory from Saint Martin's on Thursday and an 87-79 win over Western Oregon on Saturday. The Yellowjackets' three-game win streak ended on Monday with a 62-36 loss at Alaska.
- Junior guard Carrington Wiggins averaged 18.3 points per game over the three games. Wiggins went off for 34 points against SMU on 12 of 18 from the field, 5 of 12 from three-point range and 5 of 6 from the free-throw line. He scored 15 points with four rebounds, three assists and three steals at WOU and had six points at Alaska. Wiggins is fifth in the GNAC in scoring at 17.4 points per game.
- Senior guard Damen Thacker averaged 15.3 points and four assists per game. Thacker finished with 13 points, seven rebounds and three assists against SMU. He then came alive for 30 points at WOU on 10 of 20 from the field and 6 of 12 from three-point range. He also had eight assists and three rebounds. Thacker added three points at Alaska. Thacker enters the week averaging 14 points per game.
- Freshman center Emmanuel Ajanaku averaged 10 rebounds per game across the three contests, led by his 10 rebounds at Saint Martin's and 11 at Western Oregon. Ajanaku is sixth in the GNAC with 6.7 rebounds per game.
- Montana State Billings is averaging 65.8 points per game and ranks third in the conference with 36.4 rebounds per game. The Yellowjackets lead the GNAC and rank 20th in Division II in field goal percentage defense (.409).
- Montana State Billings ends a stretch of four games in five games on Tuesday at Alaska Anchorage. The Yellowjackets will then play at Seattle Pacific on Saturday and Western Washington on Monday.

- The Vikings have three games on the docket this week, playing at Central Washington before hosting Western Oregon on Thursday and Saint Martin's on Saturday.

GNAC Basketball Championships

In an effort to lessen the effects of postponements and cancellations of games this season due to COVID-19, the Great Northwest Athletic Conference has announced changes to the field sizes and qualifying criteria for its 2022 men's and women's basketball championships.

The conference's Management Council and CEO Board unanimously voted to expand this year's tournament to all 10 men's and women's programs. The GNAC Championships will run from March 2 to 5.

To accommodate full fields in both genders, the first two rounds of games will be split between Saint Martin's University in Lacey, Washington, and Seattle Pacific University. In total, six games – two play-in contests and four quarterfinal matchups – will be contested at SPU's Royal Brougham Pavilion. The other 12 games, including the semifinals and championship games in both genders, will be played at Marcus Pavilion on the campus of Saint Martin's, which was awarded tournament-hosting rights two years ago.

For each gender, the No. 7 through No. 10 seeds will compete in play-in games on Wednesday, March 2. The winners will advance to an eight-team bracket, which will begin play on Thursday, March 3.

With the prospect of conference teams playing unbalanced schedules, tournament seeding in 2022 will be based on a points rating system rather than win/loss percentage.

The points rating system is an end-of-season calculation that attaches numeric values to each result based on whether the game was at home or on the road and where each opponent's final conference winning percentage fell (i.e., .750 and above, .500 to .749, .250 to .499 and .249 and below). The better an opponent's final winning percentage, the greater the point values for a win or a loss. It is similar to one of the key metrics used by Division II in ranking teams under consideration for NCAA postseason at-large berths in multiple sports, including men's and women's basketball.

Championship brackets are expected to be announced on Saturday, February 26, following the conclusion of the final games of the regular season. Ticket information for both venues will be released at a later date.

GNAC POINTS RATING SYSTEM

Points shall be awarded for each conference contest played:

- 7 points – win over a .750 or better team on the road
