Around The GNAC

TEAMS TESTING THEMSELVES PRIOR TO HOLIDAY BREAK: Conference teams will receive a few days of deserved rest around Christmas, but before that time a handful of conference programs are using the time before the break to test themselves against some tough competition.

Seattle Pacific is in the midst of a two-game road trip that the Falcons hope will provide solid Division II wins. The trip started on Monday with the Falcons handing previously undefeated Texas A&M-Commerce its first loss, 70-61. Seattle Pacific held the Lions to just 36.8 percent shooting from the field and out rebounded the home team 43-32, led by a double-double of 15 points and 11 rebounds by sophomore Zack Paulsen.

The road trip will end on Wednesday at Southeastern Oklahoma State, which is among teams receiving votes in this week's D2SIDA Media Poll.

Western Washington and Montana State Billings will both be challenged by nationally-ranked teams at the Las Vegas Holiday Hoops Classic. The Vikings will face Lindenwood on Friday before matching up against No. 1 Lubbock Christian on Saturday.

The Yellowjackets will play No. 4 West Texas A&M on Friday before facing Rollins on Saturday.

Six of the GNAC's 10 teams are in action this week for final non-conference matchups before the conference season takes full force. Alaska, Alaska Anchorage, Simon Fraser and Western Oregon will all be idle until conference play returns December 30. Alaska and Alaska Anchorage had previously scheduled games with Portland Bible canceled.

NIGHTHAWKS SWEEP MAYOR'S CUP, NAMED GNAC TEAM OF THE WEEK:

Ask any Nampa, Idaho resident which game they'll have circled on their calendar at the start of any sports season and chances are Northwest Nazarene and College of Idaho will be the two teams competing.

The two schools, separated by 20 minutes, compete biannually in the Mayor's Cup. The Nighthawks took the first leg on the road by an 80-70 score. Since then, however, College of Idaho had won five of six on their way to an 8-3 record and a No. 15 NAIA national ranking.

Behind 19 points from George Reidy and a double-double from Gabriel Murphy, the Nighthawks defended their home court with a 71-64 victory to sweep the Yotes for the first since 2012. The significant victory earned NNU selection as the GNAC Team of the Week.

"The oldest rivalry in the state of Idaho is always a fun one for us," head coach Paul Rush said. "Our guys showed tremendous toughness in being able to lock in."

The Nighthawks have shown a propensity to play close games. The team's first two GNAC encounters both went to overtime and ended 68-67, with the Nighthawks defeating Montana State Billings before narrowly falling to preseason conference favorites Seattle Pacific. Looking ahead, the battle-tested Nighthawks play Western New Mexico twice in Nampa on December 18 and 20 before resuming conference play on December 30.

"We are definitely moving in the right direction as a team and are continuing to pour into each other and find what it is going to take for us to be successful on the court," Rush said.

ALL-TOURNAMENT PERFORMERS: The following GNAC players have earned all-tournament team honors during the 2021-22 season...

PacWest/GNAC Challenge (Nov. 12-13 at Honolulu): Quin Barnard (UAF), David Rowlands (UAA), Tobin Karlberg (UAA).
