GNAC News & Notes

IT'S TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS TIME: The eight GNAC teams will take a brief week away from conference competition and test itself against the rest of the west at the annual Tournament of Champions, hosted by Stanislaus State University in Turlock, California. All eight teams will play five games over the course of three days beginning on Friday.

The conference went 23-19 in last year's tournament. Central Washington and Saint Martin's led the way with 5-1 records while Concordia and Western Washington each won three games. The conference is 260-355-1 all-time in the Tournament of Champions. Western Washington is the only GNAC team with a winning record in the tournament at 56-51.

CAVALIERS CHARGE TO TEAM OF WEEK AWARD: In search of some success and momentum heading into this week's massive Tournament of Champions, the Concordia softball team was able to secure some big wins away from home with a perfect 4-0 week.

The Cavaliers started the weekend with two victories in Hillsboro against Saint Martin's on Saturday. They then made the trip north to Ellensburg one day later, sweeping a doubleheader at Central Washington to run their winning streak to five games while earning the selection as GNAC Team of the Week.

"I can't be more proud of these athletes and the work they have continued to put in day in and day out," said head coach Shelley Whitaker. "They take both successes and failure personally and that drives them in practice. We have continued to rep mechanics and routine situations while also pressing on the offensive side.

"Sweeping two quality programs this weekend was a huge step for us in our quest for establishing this program as an annual conference contender," Whitaker said. "Our goal isn't to play perfect every time we step on to the field, but to be better than we were the game before and play fundamental, Concordia-style softball."
