GNAC News & Notes

SEASON UNDERWAY: After having its opening series with Lewis-Clark State canceled due to weather, Western Oregon finally opened its season last week, splitting a four-game series at Fresno Pacific. The Wolves dropped the first two games of the series before bouncing back to pick up their first two wins of the season.

The Wolves snagged their first win of the season riding the arm of newcomer Alan Vasquez, who transferred to Western Oregon from Pierce Community College in Puyallup, Washington. Vasquez threw five innings in the 4-1 victory, allowing one run on three hits with one walk and 11 strikeouts to earn GNAC Pitcher of the Week honors.

Although the season started just three weeks ago, the Montana State Billings batters looked to be in midseason form as the Yellowjackets won three out of four in a split series with Sioux Falls and CSU-Pueblo in Pueblo, Colorado. The Yellowjackets scored 38 runs in the four games and batted .342 as a team.

ALL-AMERICAN START: Two of the conference's top players got off to hot starts as the 2020 season hit the ground running.

Montana State Billings' Daniel Cipriano and Western Oregon's Connor McCord both landed on the 2020 National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Division II Preseason All-West Region and All-America Teams. So far, they have lived up to those accolades.

Cipriano earned unanimous selection to the All-West Region Team. He was also selected as a Second Team Preseason All-American. McCord, who saw action on the mound and at first base in 2019, was named an honorable mention preseason All-American in addition to the regional honors.

Cipriano was named the GNAC Baseball Player of the Week after he paced the Yellowjackets to a 3-1 week in Pueblo, Colorado with a .500 batting average and 1.000 slugging percentage. He batted 8 for 16 with five runs, seven RBI, two doubles and two home runs.

McCord also had himself a week at the plate, going 8 for 14 with five doubles, a triple, three RBI and three runs scored as the Wolves opened their season with a split at Fresno Pacific.

The Yellowjackets are ranked No. 5 in the latest NCBWA West Region Rankings while the Wolves are among others receiving votes.
