

PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Zimari Manning, Tarleton Offensive Player of the Year

Harlon Hill Trophy finalist Manning is also the LSC Receiver of the Year. In 2019, Manning hauled in 68 receptions for a Tarleton-record 1,462 yards and 22 touchdowns.

His 22 scores set a new Tarleton single-season record, tied the Lone Star Conference record, and led all of NCAA Football (Division I, II, and III).

Through the regular season, Manning led all of college football at any level in yards and touchdowns.

Chris Garrett, Concordia-St. Paul Defensive Player of the Year

The NSIC Defensive Player of the Year and two-time All-American, Garrett ranks second in the country in sacks (1.27/game) and tackles for loss (1.9/game) while leading the nation with seven forced fumbles (0.6/game).

He's set the NCAA DII career record with 15 forced fumbles in just 28 games, also setting the school career sacks record with 36.5, a 1.30 sacks per game pace that would place him third in NCAA DII history on the current charts.

He had national single-game highs in sacks (5.0), tackles for loss (6.5) and forced fumbles (3) as he earned National Defensive Player of the Week honors in a win over MSU Moorhead.
