FALCONS ARE IN, REST OF FIELD UNCLEAR: With two weeks to go in the regular season, Seattle Pacific is the only sure thing when it comes to the GNAC Championships.

After the program's 0-4 start to open the season, the Falcons rebounded strong go 19-1 since that time. With the program's two wins last week, an 86-75 defeat of Saint Martin's and an 83-62 rout of Montana State Billings, the Falcons earned their first GNAC regular-season championship since 2014.

The hosts of this year's GNAC Basketball Championships, the Falcons will be the tournament's No. 1 seed when it opens at Royal Brougham Pavilion on March 5.

There is nothing certain about the remaining five spots in the tournament field with the second through eighth place teams with just three games between them. Western Oregon, Western Washington and Northwest Nazarene are all tied for second at 10-6. Alaska and Anchorage are tied for fifth at 9-7 with Central Washington at 8-8 and Simon Fraser at 7-9.

The Seawolves and Nanooks will try to separate themselves when the two programs face off in Fairbanks on Tuesday. Simon Fraser will hope for an upset of Seattle Pacific on Thursday and a win over Saint Martin's on Saturday to stay alive. Western Oregon will face key battles on the road at Central Washington on Thursday and at Northwest Nazarene on Saturday.

OVERTIME VICTORIES MAKE SEAWOLVES TEAM OF THE WEEK: Alaska Anchorage fans were treated to plenty of free basketball last week.

The UAA men scored a pair of overtime wins at home over Northwest Nazarene (90-89) on Thursday and Central Washington (70-68) on Saturday to keep their playoff hopes alive and earn selection as the GNAC Team of the Week.

Down 12 points at the half against NNU, the Seawolves outscored the Nighthawks 43-31 in the second half to send the game to overtime. With 20 seconds left in the overtime period, junior forward/center Oggie Pantovic knocked down a three-pointer, which proved to be the game-winning basket.

"In the second half, we played with a lot more poise and our shooters made the kind of big shots in crucial situations that you have to make to be a winning ballclub," head coach Rusty Osborne said about his team's adjustments after the break.

After shooting 46.7 percent from the field in the first half against CWU, the Seawolves connected on just 34.8 percent from the field and 11.1 percent from three-point range in the second half to let the Wildcats back in the game. Senior guard Tyrus Hosley provided the late-game heroics, scoring the game-winner with one second left in the overtime period as the Seawolves snapped the Wildcats' five-game win streak.
