Around The GNAC

SIMON FRASER TIGHTENS UP THE TITLE RACE: With eight games to go in the regular season, it will take a big win streak for Simon Fraser to earn a spot in the GNAC Championships. That fact, however, has not kept the Clan from making their say in who might take the regular-season championship.

The Clan pulled off what might be the upset of the season on Saturday, scoring a 63-61 victory at league-leading Saint Martin's. Simon Fraser rebounded from a 13-point deficit with 8:10 left in the first half to tie it at 27-27 at the half. The Saints built the lead back to seven points on EJ Boyce's three-pointer with 5:33 to go, but the Clan proceeded to outscore the Saints 15-6 the rest of the way. Julian Roche closed the game out with the game-winning layup with five seconds left. Roche led the way for the Clan with 23 points and 10 rebounds, going 10 of 15 from the field.

No one was happier about Simon Fraser's win than Northwest Nazarene as it allowed the Nighthawks to pull back into a first-place tie with the Saints. But it took an incredible comeback, however, for NNU to even be in that position.

The Nighthawks found themselves down 44-29 at halftime against Montana State Billings on Saturday and appeared to be headed to defeat when the Yellowjackets pulled out to a 67-40 lead with 10:38 left. It was at that point, though, that NNU went on a spirited 30-3 run over the next six minutes, culminating when Adonis Arms' dunk with 4:27 left tied the game at 70-70. The Nighthawks battled back again, using back-to-back Jayden Bezzant three-pointers to tie it at 80-80 at the end of regulation.

Northwest Nazarene went on to outscore Montana State Billings 12-9 in the extra period to come away with the 92-89 victory.

While Saint Martin's and Northwest Nazarene sit tied for first, Western Oregon is just a game back with a 9-3 conference mark with Seattle Pacific two games back at 8-4. Both teams swept their games last week.
