GNAC News & Notes

KASNER ON STRIKE: It took just one game for Western Washington senior pitcher Anna Kasner to make history.

In the Vikings' season-opener on Friday against Puget Sound in Bellevue, Washington, Kasner surpassed the 400 career strikeout plateau in the 7-3 victory. She became the 11th player in GNAC history to strike out 400 or more batters and is now No. 9 on the all-time list.

In the game, Kasner matched her career total with 15 strikeouts. It is the fourth time in the last decade that a GNAC pitcher has fanned 15 or more batters.

Kasner was named the GNAC Softball Pitcher of the Week after she threw for two wins for WWU, compiling a 1.62 earned run average. She allowed three runs on seven hits and struck out 21 in 13 innings. She also helped her own cause at the plate, going 6 for 8 with two runs and two RBI.

CONFERENCE...BUT NOT CONFERENCE GAMES: After a limited non-conference schedule to begin the season, the GNAC's six competing teams will be focusing on each other with two weeks of non-conference matchups against conference teams.

Western Washington will travel south to Ellensburg for a four-game series against in-state rival Central Washington. Montana State Billings will come west for a four-game series with Saint Martin's.

The only exception to the matchups is Northwest Nazarene. The Nighthawks will host Division III Whitworth for a four-game series on Friday and Saturday. Northwest Nazarene was scheduled to host Western Oregon but the series was postponed to March 26 and 27.

The true conference season will begin on Friday, March 19 with Northwest Nazarene hosting Saint Martin's.
