GNAC News & Notes

SIMON FRASER SHINES AT TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS: Perhaps all Simon Fraser needed was a trip south.

Simon Fraser entered the Tournament of Champions having lost seven of its last eight games, dropping all four games of a GNAC series to Saint Martin's on Mar. 19 and 20 and three of four games to Central Washington on Mar. 26 and 27.

In the annual showcase of West Region teams in Turlock, California this past weekend, it was SFU that paced the conference with a 4-1 record. After dropping its first game of the tourney 9-7 to Cal State Monterey Bay on Friday, SFU won four straight. Friday ended with a 10-3 win over Holy Names before they scored a 7-1 win over Academy of Art and a 7-5 win over San Francisco State on Saturday. They closed out the tournament Sunday with a 1-0 win over Cal St. Dominguez Hills.

Junior Hanna Finkelstein was named the Top Hitter of the tournament and also picked up GNAC Softball Player of the Week honors after she batted .625 in the tournament, going 10 for 16 with six runs scored, four doubles, a triple, a home run and 11 RBI. As a team, Simon Fraser batted .300 in the TOC.

Central Washington and Western Washington each went 3-2 at the Tournament of Champions and also provided the top two pitching performances for the conference. Senior Rhaney Harris was named the GNAC Pitcher of the Week after she was the winner in the circle in all three of the Wildcats' wins. She allowed four runs on 20 hits and struck out 10 in 21 innings, amassing a 1.33 earned run average.

Vikings sophomore Sydney Brown threw the 30th no-hitter in GNAC history in Sunday's 6-0 win over Academy of Art and just the 11th seven-inning no-hitter in conference history. She allowed two walks and struck out three. She threw 90 pitches in the win, 57 for strikes, as Brown improved to 7-2 on the season.

The GNAC finished with a 15-19 overall record in the Tournament of Champions, which featured all but one of the West Region's softball programs. Four GNAC players were named to the All-Tournament Team: Finkelstein, Western Washington senior Chantelle Shimabukuro, Western Oregon sophomore Sophie Franklin and Central Washington junior Allie Thiessen.

With the Tournament of Champions done, the focus will be on conference play for the rest of the season. Montana State Billings will host Northwest Nazarene for a four-game series on Friday and Saturday. Simon Fraser will host Western Washington and Saint Martin's will host Central Washington with games played on Saturday and Sunday.
