GNAC News & Notes

SAINTS IN DRIVER'S SEAT AS CONFERENCE PLAY BEGINS: While inclement weather wreaked havoc on schedules for all seven GNAC teams, Saint Martin's succeeded in making the most of it.

The Saints saw shifts in their weekend doubleheaders but it did little to stop the offense. They opened their home schedule with 5-4 and 9-6 wins over Simon Fraser on Sunday before scoring 4-3 and 7-3 wins over Western Washington on Monday.

Saint Martin's finished with a .352 batting average in the four games, outscoring the Red Leafs and Vikings 25-16. Sophomore Kekai Schultz led the offense with a .533 batting average, going 8 for 15 with three doubles, a home run and seven RBIs.

The biggest difference for the Saints, though, came in the circle. Junior Tia Ridings picked up three wins in the four games, including starting performances in the opener against Simon Fraser and the finale against Western Washington. Sophomore Chloe Leverington had three saves and now ranks second in the GNAC with five saves on the season.

The conference's weekly awards, however, went to Central Washington players after the Wildcats took two wins from Northwest Nazarene and three of four games from Montana State Billings. Senior Ashlee Laver earned Pitcher of the Week honors after she picked up two wins and a save in 15 innings. She allowed just two hits, one each in complete-game victories over MSUB on Friday and Saturday.

Senior Harlee Carpenter received the Player of the Week award after she batted .545 in the six games, going 12 for 22 with eight runs, a double, a triple, seven RBIs and three stolen bases.

Six of the conference's teams focus on games this week that count in the GNAC standings. Northwest Nazarene will host Montana State Billings, Saint Martin's hosts Western Oregon and Western Washington hosts Simon Fraser for four-game series. Central Washington will travel to Arcata, California, for a four-game series at Cal Poly Humboldt.
