GNAC News & Notes

VIKINGS, NIGHTHAWKS TAKE EARLY CONFERENCE LEADS: While the weather did what it could to keep schedulers on their toes, most of the GNAC's teams succeeded in playing most of their games last week.

When the raindrops had stopped, Western Washington and Northwest Nazarene found themselves on top of the conference standings.

Northwest Nazarene took three of four games at home over Montana State Billings, also in a split four-game series. The Nighthawks won both games on Thursday, 6-3 and 4-1, before opening Saturday with a 2-0 win. The Yellowjackets came back to win the finale on Saturday, 6-3.

The series yielded both GNAC Players of the Week for the Nighthawks. Senior Maia McNicoll was named the Softball Player of the Week after she hit .455 in the four games, going 5 for 11 with three runs, two home runs and six RBIs. Junior Sidney Booth picked up Softball Pitcher of the Week honors after she threw a pair of complete-game victories, which included a two-hit shutout in Saturday's 2-0 win.

Central Washington succeeded in playing all four games at Cal Poly Humboldt. The Wildcats dropped both games on Friday, 10-2 in six innings and 3-0, and also dropped Saturday's opener 2-1 in eight innings. Central came back to win the final game of the series, 8-2.

Saint Martin's and Western Oregon played two of their four scheduled games. The teams split on Saturday with the Wolves winning the opener 5-4 and the Saints winning the nightcap 5-2. Sunday's doubleheader was suspended in the middle of third inning in game one. The game will be resumed at a date to be determined.

The focus this week will be on conference play with six of seven teams playing on Saturday and Sunday. Central Washington will host Western Washington, Western Oregon will host Simon Fraser and Saint Martin's will host Montana State Billings.
