GNAC News & Notes

STOP THIEF...OR NOT...: Simon Fraser has 10 games left in its regular season, which leaves junior Megan Duclos plenty of time to add to her single-season record in stolen bases.

Duclos had three stolen bases in Friday's doubleheader with Saint Martin's to give her 36 on the season set the GNAC single-season record in stolen bases. She surpassed the previous record of 33 set by Autumn Isaacson of Western Washington in 2015.

Duclos had 23 of those stolen bases in a tear through the first month of play, which included four stolen bases against Fort Lewis on Feb. 5 that tied the GNAC single-game record. She opened the season stealing 30 straight bases and was not caught for the first time until Mar. 17.

KEEPING PACE WITH TEAM OF THE WEEK HONORS: Northwest Nazarene continues to reign at the top of the conference softball standings after taking three of four games from Western Washington to earn GNAC Team of the Week honors.

The Nighthawks opened the series with a pair of 3-2 wins on Friday. In the series opener, NNU captured the lead in the third inning when senior Maia McNicoll launched a solo home run over the center field fence. McNicoll doubled the lead in the sixth inning with an RBI single to score senior Tori Hensley from second after Hensley stole second base.

After Western Washington battled back in the top of the seventh to tie the score, patience in the batter's box proved to be the final decision maker. The Nighthawks drew four walks in the final inning, including one for the final run of the game with junior Sidney Booth working a 0-1 count into a walk with the bases loaded to win the opener. Booth also earned the win in the circle, throwing all seven innings while allowing two runs, one earned, on five hits and two walks while striking out six.

It was another complete game victory in the second half of Friday's doubleheader with Hensley going the distance in the circle. Hensley allowed two runs on nine hits while striking out four. Those two runs came in the first frame, after which Northwest Nazarene chipped away at the deficit with single-run innings in the second, third and fourth to take the lead.

Around The GNAC

CENTRAL WASHINGTON

WILDCATS

- Central Washington dropped three of four games at Western Oregon last week. The Wildcats fell 4-3 and 8-7 (10 innings) on Friday and 4-0 in Saturday's opener before bouncing back for the 3-2 win in the series finale.
- Junior Kate Hopkins led the Wildcats with a .300 batting average, going 3 for 10 with a double and two RBIs. Hopkins had a two-RBI single in Friday's second game before going 1 for 1 with two walks in Saturday's opener and 1 for 4 in the finale. Hopkins enters the week with a .269 batting average.
- Junior Brooke Jordan went 3 for 14 in the four games with a home run, two RBIs and two runs scored. Jordan went 1 for 3 in Friday's opener and 1 for 5 in the nightcap with a two-run homer that capped a four-run third inning. She closed the series by going 1 for 3 in Saturday's second game. Jordan is batting .230 in 27 games this season.
- Senior Isabel Womack earned the win in Saturday's finale as she allowed two runs on four hits with three walks and seven strikeouts. She took a no-decision in Friday's second game as she allowed three runs on no hits with eight walks and three strikeouts in 5.1 innings. Womack enters the week with a 4.27 ERA and a 7-6 record.

- Montana State Billings plays eight of its final 12 regular-season games at home. The Yellowjackets host Western Oregon for a four-game set on Friday and Saturday.

NORTHWEST NAZARENE

- Northwest Nazarene took three of four games from Western Washington at home last week. The Nighthawks won both games on Friday by 3-2 scores. The Vikings took game one on Saturday, 5-2, before NNU closed the series with a 9-1, six-inning win.
- For their effort to keep on top of the standings, Northwest Nazarene was selected as the GNAC Team of the Week.
- Sophomore Clarissa Moreno was named the GNAC Softball Player of the Week after she finished with a .545 batting average, .706 on-base percentage and a 1.182 slugging percentage in the four games. She went 6 for 11 with five runs, a double, two home runs and five RBIs while also drawing five walks. Moreno had two hits in both games on Friday, including going 2 for 4 in the nightcap with the game-winning RBI single in the fourth. She had a solo home run in Saturday's opener and had a three-run shot in the second game. Moreno is batting .293 on the season.
- Senior Maia McNicoll batted .364 in the series, going 4 for 11 with a double, a home run, a run scored and six RBIs. McNicoll had a solo home run and an RBI single in Friday's opener. She closed the series by going 2 for 4 with a two-run double and a two-run single in Saturday's finale. McNicoll enters the week with a .321 batting average and is tied for the GNAC lead with nine home runs.
- Senior Tori Hensley won both of her starts, compiling a 1.75 ERA in 12 innings. Hensley won Friday's nightcap by allowing two runs on nine hits with four strikeouts. In Saturday's nightcap, Hensley allowed one run on five hits with a walk and three strikeouts. Hensley is third in the GNAC with a 2.18 ERA.
- Northwest Nazarene leads the conference with a 2.41 ERA and enters the week with a .277 batting average. The Nighthawks rank 30th in Division II with a 3.23 strikeout-to-walk ratio.
- The Nighthawks travel to Ellensburg, Washington this week for a four-game series at Central Washington on Friday and Saturday.

SAINT MARTIN'S

- Saint Martin's split a pair of games at Simon Fraser on Friday, falling 5-4 in the opener before winning 8-3 in the nightcap.
- Saturday's games were rained out and will be made at Simon Fraser on Wednesday beginning at noon.
- Freshman Haley Agena led the SMU offense by going 4 for 6 with two runs, a double and an RBI. Agena went 2 for 3 in the opener with an RBI double. She had two more hits in the nightcap and scored a run. Agena leads the GNAC with a .439 batting average and is tied for first in the GNAC with three triples.
- Sophomore Kekai Schultz went 3 for 6 in the twinbill with four runs scored, two home runs and three RBIs. Schultz went 1 for 3 with a solo home run in the opener and went 2 for 3 in the nightcap with a two-run homer. Schultz ranks fifth in the GNAC with a .364 batting average.
- Junior Abby Runyon picked up the win in the circle in the second game, allowing two runs on eight hits with five walks and four strikeouts in 4.1 innings of work. Runyon is ninth in the GNAC with a 2.97 ERA and is 7-2 on the season.
