Around The GNAC

PLENTY OF STORYLINES AS SECOND HALF COMMENCES: In last week's matchup between two of the conference's three title contenders, the Falcons got more lift in their wings than the Yellowjackets.

Seattle Pacific more than held its own on Saturday against Montana State Billings, which came into the contest undefeated in conference play. The Falcons shot 50.9% from the field while the defense limited MSUB to 37.5% shooting and just five three-pointers to score a 72-59 victory.

The Falcons benefited from a balanced effort across the board, led by 15 points and eight rebounds from junior forward Shaw Anderson. Sophomore guards Syon Blackmon and Casson Rouse each finished with 10 points, with Blackmon adding seven rebounds. Sophomore guard Maui Sze added nine points and eight rebounds.

With the win, Seattle Pacific pulled even with MSUB for first place in the GNAC standings at 8-1 and was recognized as the GNAC Team of the Week.

Even in the defeat, Montana State Billings received solid production from its two stars. Senior guard Carrington Wiggins led all scorers with 24 points and seven rebounds while senior forward Bilal Shabazz added 17 points and eight rebounds.

Saint Martin's is very much still in the regular-season title conversation after two wins last week. The Saints cruised back to the Alaska schools, taking an 82-63 victory from the Nanooks on Thursday and a 100-73 win over the Seawolves on Saturday. With the victories, Saint Martin's improved to 7-2 in conference play to sit a game behind the Yellowjackets and Falcons.

As the second half of conference play begins, a group of four teams tied for fourth in the standings aim to separate themselves from the pack. Central Washington and Western Oregon both moved into the logjam with two wins last week. They are tied with Western Washington and Northwest Nazarene at 4-5.

Only two of those teams will face each other this week with Western Oregon playing at Western Washington on Saturday.

Central Washington will return home to Nicholson Pavilion for the first time this season after delays to the facility's renovation project forced the Wildcats to play in other venues in Ellensburg, Yakima and Moses Lake. The Wildcats will host conference co-leaders with Seattle Pacific visiting on Thursday and Montana State Billings visiting on Saturday.
