GNAC News & Notes

KEY ROAD TRIP PUTS VIKINGS IN CONTROL: The two-game road trip to Alaska is usually one of the more daunting moments on any GNAC volleyball team's schedule. For Western Washington, it was simply the final checked box to extend a 10-match winning streak that has vaulted the Vikings to the top of the GNAC.

They beat Alaska on Thursday, dispatching a resilient Nanooks team in five sets before topping arch-rivals Alaska Anchorage in three sets at the Alaska Airlines Center, extending their lead in the GNAC standings to two games over the Seawolves. For the two wins in the 49th state that established them as the team to beat in the conference, the Vikings were named the GNAC Team of the Week.

"I am proud of my team for their focus, energy and preparation during these tough two road matches," head coach Diane Flick-Williams said. "The GNAC can be a gauntlet when you take a road trip, but we remained focused and gained two very big wins against good opponents."

The Vikings were helped by two Player of the Week performances from their outside hitters. Junior Gabby Gunterman won the offensive honors after averaging 4.75 kills and four digs per set. Sophomore Calley Heilborn won her third Defensive Player of the Week award of the season with a well-rounded stat line of 5.25 digs and 4.38 kills per set.

KEEPING PACE: Alaska Anchorage and Simon Fraser have big weeks ahead to try and keep pace with the Vikings in the chase for the GNAC championship.

The Seawolves hope that the road will be a kinder place than the Alaska Airlines Center was last week. They travel to Northwest Nazarene on Thursday and Central Washington on Saturday. On Monday, Alaska Anchorage will meet Western Washington for the second time in nine days in Bellingham. The match is the make-up of one that was postponed in September for health and safety protocols. Alaska Anchorage sits in second place in the GNAC at 9-3.

Simon Fraser will be at home to face Western Oregon on Thursday and Saint Martin's on Saturday. Simon Fraser is one game behind UAA in third place at 9-4.

SIMPLY THE BEST: The following GNAC plays have been named to all-tournament teams during the 2021 season.
