GNAC WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Updated Through 2022-23 Season

ALL-TIME PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

2001-02

Week of Nov. 12-18: Rose Shaw, Central Washington (C, 6-1, Sr., Bellevue, WA - Interlake) played just 40 minutes, but scored 52 points and had 22 rebounds as the Wildcats won the first annual Rodeo City Classic. Shaw, who converted on 19 of 26 shots and also was credited with six steals, scored 28 points and had 17 rebounds in a 31-point win over Northwest College after collecting 24 points and five rebounds in a 41-point win over Cascade.

Week of Nov. 19-25: Melanie Wagoner, Alaska Fairbanks (G, 5-8, Sr., Beaverton, OR) was named to the all-tournament team in the North Star Invitational, which featured three Division I schools. Wagoner had 20 points, 12 assists and four steals, including seven points, five assists and four steals in a seven-point semifinal win over Northern Illinois. She also had 13 points and seven assists in a nine-point loss to Western Illinois in the championship game.

Week of Nov. 26-Dec. 2: Cal-Jean Lloyd, Seattle (F, 5-10, Jr., Tacoma, WA - Mount Tahoma & Highline CC) scored 36 points and had 17 rebounds as the Redhawks divided a pair of games, defeating Warner Pacific 85-47 before losing to Montana State-Billings 76-69. Lloyd had a double-double with 19 points and 13 rebounds against Warner, and then contributed 17 points and four rebounds before fouling out with eight minutes left against the Yellowjackets.

Week of Dec. 3-9: Mandi Dinan, Western Oregon (P, 6-2, Sr., Beaverton, OR - Westview) and Alysson Kollmann, Northwest Nazarene (F, 5-10, Jr., Nampa, ID) . . .Dinan shot at a 75 percent pace (15 of 20) and had 31 points and 13 rebounds as the Wolves extended their winning streak to five with wins over Alaska Anchorage and Alaska Fairbanks. Dinan was nearly perfect, making nine of 10 shots, against UAA. . .Kollmann helped the Crusaders to a split of a pair of games with two of the top teams in the GNAC. She had 19 points, nine rebounds, three assists, two blocks and two steals as NNU rallied from an 11-point deficit to upset nationally sixth-ranked Seattle Pacific. Earlier in the week, she had 12 points, five rebounds, three assists and two steals in a 14-point home loss to Central Washington.

Week of Dec. 10-16: Amber Hellberg, Northwest Nazarene (F, 5-11, Sr., Walla Walla, WA - DeSales) and Nicole Lynch, Humboldt State (C, 6-2, Fr., Danville, CA - Carondlet). . .Hellberg scored 35 points as the Crusaders divided a pair of games in Billings, defeating Rocky Mountain 77-62 before losing to Montana State - Billings 76-67. She shot 67 percent from the floor, making 14 of 21 shots. She also had 10 rebounds, two assists and three steals. . .Lynch converted on 17 of 26 shots and scored 37 points as the Lumberjacks also split a pair of road games, defeating Notre Dame de Namur 60-54 before losing to Dominican 82-74. Lynch had game-highs of 21 points and eight rebounds against Dominican and also led HSU with 16 points against Notre Dame.

Week of Dec. 17-23: Jenn McGillivray, Western Washington (F, 6-0, So., Salem, OR - South Salem) scored 39 points in two games leading the Vikings to a pair of victories. McGillivray scored a career-high 25 points and had seven rebounds, two assists and one steal in a 16-point conference win over Northwest Nazarene and had 14 points, seven rebounds, four assists and one steal in a 27-point non-conference win over Northwest College. In the two contests, she made 65 percent of her shots (13 of 20) and also converted on 13 of 16 foul shots, including 11 of 12 against NNU.

Week of Dec. 24-30: Heather Laats, Western Oregon (P, 5-10, Sr., Beaverton, OR - Westview) and Bell Jordan, Alaska Anchorage (C, 6-2, Sr., Stockton, CA - Lincoln) . . . Laats earned all-tournament honors in leading the Wolves to a pair of wins in their own invitational. She had 21 points and 21 rebounds in the two contests and shot 60.0 percent (9-15) from the floor. She also had three assists and five steals and claimed her fourth double-double of the season with 12 points and 13 rebounds in a six-point win over UC Davis. . .Jordan earned all-tournament honors in the Lynn, Fla. Invitational. In two games, she scored 41 points (16-31 FGs, 9-13 FTs) and also had 15 rebounds, including 12 in a 70-44 win over Mercy, N.Y.

Week of Dec. 31-Jan. 6: Nicole Lynch, Humboldt State (C, 6-2, Fr., Danville, CA) and Kelley Berglund, Seattle Pacific (C, 6-3, Jr., Port Angeles). . .Lynch connected on 10 of 13 shots and scored 24 points as the Lumberjacks stunned Western Oregon 70-63, snapping the Wolves' nine-game winning streak. She also was credited with six rebounds, two assists and a steal. . .Berglund, a transfer from Washington State, scored 47 points in two games, including a career-high 26 in a 13-point win over Western Washington. Berglund hit on 10 of 16 shots and had five offensive rebounds against the Vikings and made 10 of 15 shots and had seven rebounds and three steals in an eight-point win over Seattle.

Week of Jan. 7-13: Kathy Kartikova, Saint Martin's (F, 6-0, Sr., Kosice, Slovakia - Elma) made a GNAC season-high seven three-point shots and scored 25 points to lead the Saints to a one-point double overtime road win at Nampa. Kartikova, who also had six rebounds, three assists and four steals, was seven of 12 from beyond the three-point line.

In the process, she became MSUB's all-time leading scorer with 1,639 career points. Carpenter made 27 of 60 shots, including 11 of 28 three-pointers in the three-game sweep.

Week of Dec. 29-Jan. 4: Alira Carpenter, Montana State Billings (G, 5-8, Sr., Lewiston, MT) scored 44 points and also had eight rebounds as the Yellowjackets split two games, earning a road win at Colorado State Pueblo, which came into the game with an 8-2 record. MSUB, which won just 11 games last season takes an 8-3 record into the conference portion of its schedule. Carpenter has scored 19 or more points in all 11 MSUB games.

Week of Jan. 5-11: Kelsey Burns, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-11, Sr., Seattle, WA – Kennedy) scored 38 points, including 25 in a 88-69 win at Montana State Billings as the Falcons overcame a first-half deficit to remain unbeaten in NCAA Division II contests. Burns, who also had seven rebounds, nine assists and five steals, made seven of eight three-pointers including five of five against MSUB. She missed just seven shots in the two contests, making 15 of 22.

Week of Jan. 12-18: Janee Olds, Northwest Nazarene (G, 5-8, Jr., Coos Bay, OR – North Bend) scored 35 points and also had 15 rebounds and five steals as the Crusaders took over sole possession of third place in the GNAC with two home wins. Olds made 10 of 19 shots, five of 10 from beyond the three-point line.

Week of Jan. 19-25: Jackie Thiel, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-4, Sr. Plainview, TX – Florida Gulf Coast) and Roni Jo Mielke, Saint Martin's (G, 5-6, So., Harrington, WA – Harrington-Sprague). . . Thiel scored 16 points and also had 10 rebounds, nine assists, three steals and just one turnover in leading the Seawolves to two come-from-behind wins as they ran their win streak to a school-record 16 games. In UAA's 53-49 win over Seattle Pacific, she earned an assist on Tamar Gruwell's game-winning three-pointer and then grabbed a key rebound with 8.3 seconds left and made two clinching free throws in the four-point victory. . . Mielke, whose previous career high had been 13 points, scored 41 points, including 24 in a 86-83 overtime win at Western Oregon. Mielke hit a three-pointer to force overtime against the Wolves and then scored seven points in the extra session including two foul shots to put SMU ahead 84-83 in the final minute. In SMU's two wins, she made 14 of 24 shots, including four of five three-pointers. She also had seven assists, six rebounds and three steals.

Week of Jan. 26-Feb. 1: Amanda Dunbar, Western Washington (G, 5-9, So., Marysville, WA – Marysville-Pilchuck) scored 39 points as the Vikings recorded their 799th and 800th all-time victories during their storied women's basketball history. Dunbar had 19 points in WWU's 84-44 thrashing of Seattle Pacific on Thursday converting all five of her three-point attempts. She added 20 more points in the Vikings' 82-72 win at Central on Saturday. The victory was WWU's 76th all-time victory against the Wildcats. In the two contests she made nine of 12 attempts from outside the arc and was 11 of 18 overall.

Week of Feb. 2-8: Daesha Henderson, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-8, Jr., Snohomish, WA) and Jamey Gelhar, Saint Martin's (G, 5-6, Jr., Brush Prairie, WA - Prairie). . . Henderson made two-thirds of her shots and scored 41 points to lead a short-handed Falcon team to wins against Central Washington and Northwest Nazarene. Henderson made 16 of 24 attempts, five of 12 from the three-point line. She also keyed the SPU defense with nine steals. . . Gelhar scored 36 points, connecting on 13 of 23 shots, four of five three-pointers, and, of course, all six of her foul shots. She had 20 points, including a scoop layup with two seconds to go to break a 78-78 tie in a 80-78 win over Western Oregon. Gelhar extended her free throw streak to 58, breaking NCAA Division II records for most consecutive free throws made in a single season (53) and most consecutive free throws, including streaks over two seasons (55). She has two more free throw records to chase this week - the NCAA all-division records for consecutive free throws in a single season (61) and overall (69).

Week of Feb. 9-15: Ruby Williams, Alaska Anchorage (F, 5-10, Sr., Phoenix, AZ – Maryvale & Central Arizona) and Sheena Brown, Alaska Fairbanks (G, 5-8, Sr., Fairbanks, AK – Lathrop). . . Williams led the Seawolves with 28 points as they extended their win streak to 22 with a three-point victory over Western Washington and a 28-point win over Central Washington. Williams played outstanding defense in the two contests and also came up with a key defensive rebound with 16 seconds left against the Vikings. She made nine of 21 field goals and 10 of 11 free throws and had seven rebounds. . . Brown scored 63 points, including 44 in a four-point overtime loss to Central Washington. Brown's point total against the Wildcats is the second highest in GNAC history as she nearly led the Nanooks to the victory despite taking the court with only three teammates who had previously played in a game this season. She made six of 11 three-point shots against CWU and all 11 of her foul shots against the Vikings as she moved into 20th place in GNAC history with 1,163 career points.

Week of Feb. 16-22: Kelsey Hill, Seattle Pacific (C, 6-2, Sr., Portland, OR – Portland Christian) and Kristin Hein, Northwest Nazarene (C, 5-11, Jr., Tualatin, OR). . . Hill and Hein had almost identical numbers as their respective teams both upset top-ranked Alaska Anchorage. Hill scored 21 points and pulled down 13 rebounds in a 54-42 win helping end UAA's 22-game win streak. Two days later, Hein scored 21 points making all five of her three-point attempts and earning 12 rebounds in a 71-48 thrashing of the Seawolves. For the week, both players had a pair of double-doubles. Hill finished with 37 points (14-27 FG, 9-10 FTs) and 23 rebounds and also had seven assists and three blocks. Hein had 44 points, 26 rebound and six assists. She also made all eight of her three-point attempts pulling within one of the GNAC record for most consecutive three-pointers made. The two double-doubles were her first of the season.

Week of Feb. 23-Mar. 1: Lindsay Brady, Northwest Nazarene (G, 5-8, Jr., Boise, ID – Bishop Kelly) scored 43 points and also had seven rebounds and five steals as the Crusaders continued their late season playoff push, extending their win streak to five with road victories at Monmouth and Lacey. Brady made 15 of 21 shots, including three of four three-pointers, in the two contests. She had 28 points, including a key basket with 1:13 left and four free throws in the final 37 seconds, in Saturday's 84-77 win at Saint Martin's.

Week of Mar. 2-8: Kelsey Burns, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-11, Sr., Seattle, WA – Kennedy) scored 34 points, making 12 of 22 shots including six of 11 three-pointers as the Falcons posted road wins at Saint Martin's and Northwest Nazarene to earn a share of their sixth GNAC title in eight seasons. Burns also had eight rebounds, three assists and three steals. She scored a game-high 21 points and hit both ends of a one-and-one with 12 seconds remaining as SPU hung on to beat NNU 72-68 Saturday to extend their win streak to nine games going into the West Regional playoffs which begin Friday at Brougham Pavilion.

Week of Nov. 16-22: Callie Kautzmann, Montana State Billings (5-10, So., Nampa, ID) scored 63 points and also had 21 rebounds, five assists and seven steals as the Yellowjackets won a trio of contests, all by double-digit margins. Kautzmann shot 56.1 percent from the floor (23-41), 43.8 percent from the three-point line (7 of 16) and 90.9 percent from the free throw line (10-11) in wins over UC-Colorado Springs, Mary and Chadron State. All three contests are region counters for the Yellowjackets.

Week of Nov. 23-29 and Feb. 8-14: In November, Nicci Miller, Alaska Anchorage (F, 5-10, Sr., Denver, CO – Hinkley) led the Seawolves to their fourth straight Great Alaska Shootout title, scoring 39 points and pulling in 15 rebounds in wins over Coastal Carolina and Cincinnati. Miller, who made 15 of 27 shots (55.6 percent) and five of 11 three-pointers was selected the tournament's MVP. It was also the fourth consecutive season that a UAA player had been selected the MVP. The Seawolves also extended their home win streak to 25 with the two victories, including 21 at the Wells Fargo Sports Complex and four at the Sullivan Arena. . . In the Week of Feb. 8-14, she scored 32 points, including 21 in a 71-69 victory against Western Washington, snapping the Vikings' win streak at 10 games. Miller's 21, which included the game-winning basket with 3.3 seconds left, was a GNAC career-high for her. She played just 23 minutes against Central Washington, but still had 11 points and eight rebounds. Miller made nine of 18 field goal attempts and all 13 of her free throw attempts in the two contests.

Week of Nov. 30-Dec. 6 and Dec. 7-13: Kristin Hein, Northwest Nazarene (F, 5-11, Sr., Tualatin, OR) earned Most Valuable Player honors in leading the Crusaders to 2-0 records in the GNAC/PacWest Classic at Nampa (Dec. 5-6) and in the Humboldt State Classic (Dec. 12-13). Hein, who also won MVP honors in the NNU Thanksgiving Classic, led the Crusaders in five different categories in the Nampa tournament including points (30), rebounds (14), assists (6), blocks (4) and steals (9), as NNU recorded wins over Dixie State and Grand Canyon. She shot 50 percent (13-26 FGs, 2-4 three-pointers) in the two wins. At Arcata, she scored 34 points and hauled in 27 rebounds in wins over Cal State Stanislaus and Humboldt State. Hein, who made 13 of 26 shots, set a GNAC single-game rebound record with 23 in the win over Humboldt State, which was picked to finish third in the CCAA's pre-season coaches poll.

Week of Dec. 14-21: Jessica Summers, Western Washington (F, 6-1, Sr., Blaine, WA – U. Idaho) scored 99 points and grabbed 43 rebounds in leading the Vikings to three wins and an overtime loss to unbeaten Washburn in tournaments at Las Vegas and Bellingham. Summers, who earned MVP honors in both events, scored 65 points and had 26 rebounds in the Great Western Shootout Wednesday and Thursday at Las Vegas. She then netted 34 points and had 17 rebounds in wins over Chico State and Sonoma State in the GNAC/CCAA Crossover Classic Sunday and Monday at Sam Carver Gymnasium. Summers, who now leads the GNAC in scoring averaging 18.9 points per game, had a GNAC season-high 37 points in Wednesday's 72-70 loss to Washburn and then pulled down 17 rebounds, the second most this season in the conference, in Thursday's 89-

70 win over Colorado State – Pueblo. In the four games, she made 39 of 77 shots and 21 of 27 free throws and also had seven assists, four blocks and four steals. Her 37 points against Washburn equaled the second-highest single game total in Viking school history and matched the sixth-best total in GNAC history.

Week of Dec. 28-Jan. 3: Kayla Ryan, Montana State Billings (F, 6-1, Jr., Big Timber, MT) scored 36 points and also had 18 rebounds as the Yellowjackets posted a pair of double-digit victories over Rocky Mountain and Chadron State. Ryan shot 72.2 percent from the floor, making 13 of 18, and also made nine of 10 foul shots in the two victories. She had 22 points and 10 rebounds against Chadron State recording her league-best seventh double-double of the season.

Week of Jan. 4-10: Willow Cabe, Western Washington (F, 6-1, Sr., McCleary, WA - Elma) scored 41 points and also had 16 rebounds leading the Vikings to a pair of wins, including a 20-point victory over two-time defending West Region champion Alaska Anchorage. Cabe had impressive shooting percentages, converting on 16 of 25 field goal attempts (64.0), five of eight three-pointers (62.5) and four of five free throws (80.0). She also had six assists, two steals and a block as WWU grabbed the early lead in the GNAC pennant race.

Week of Jan. 11-17: Amanda Dunbar, Western Washington (G, 5-9, Jr., Maryville, WA – Pilchuck) scored 52 points in double-digit road wins at Western Oregon and Saint Martin's, connecting on 19 of 28 shots, including nine of 15 three-pointers. Dunbar, who is shooting 50 percent (46-92) on the season from the three-point line, had 32 points, including 24 in the first half, in a 79-53 win at Western Oregon and 20 in a 67-50 victory at Saint Martin's. Her 32 point total is the second-highest in the conference this winter, trailing only a 37-point effort by teammate Jessica Summers in a game last month at Las Vegas against Washburn. It was also Dunbar's second career 30-point game. She had a career-high 37 in a game last January against Northwest Nazarene.

Week of Jan. 18-24: Megan Pinske, Western Washington (G, 5-9, Jr., Coquitlam, BC – Port Moody) scored 23 points and also had 12 rebounds, five assists and three steals in double-digit wins over Central Washington and Seattle Pacific as the Vikings opened up a 1 ½ game lead in the conference race. In Thursday's 80-46 victory at Ellensburg, Pinske led the Vikings with five assists and three steals and ranked second on the team with eight rebounds while also producing eight points, all without producing a turnover. She then led WWU with 16 points on six of nine shooting in a 54-40 home win over Seattle Pacific, including a key three-pointer in a 12-2 early second-half run. For the week, Pinske made nine of 16 shots, including three of five treys.

Week of Jan. 25-31: Sydney Benson, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-2, Sr., Snohomish, WA) and Sara Bergner, Central Washington (G, 5-10, Sr., Bellingham, WA – Whatcom CC). . . Benson, a transfer from Eastern Washington, scored 35 points, shooting 62.5 percent from the floor (15-24) and 75.0 percent from the three-point line (3-4), as the Falcons earned home wins over Alaska Anchorage and Alaska Fairbanks. Benson came off the bench to lead SPU in scoring in both games, netting 13 against UAA and 22 against the Nanooks. She made 10 of 11 shots in the latter game. She also had eight rebounds and a pair of blocked shots. . . Bergner led the Wildcats with 29 points and also had 13 rebounds and seven assists, ranking second on the team in both categories, as CWU earned two road wins, posting its first-ever road victory in seven tries in Billings. Bergner made 10 of 18 shots, three of four from the three-point line and also was perfect from the foul line making six of six.

Week of Feb. 1-7: Megan Hoisington, Seattle Pacific (F, 5-11, Sr., Bremerton, WA – Central Kitsap) had team highs for points (30), rebounds (22) and blocked shots (7) in leading the Falcons to wins over Central Washington and Northwest Nazarene. In their one-point win over the Crusaders, Hoisington scored a career-high 17 points, fell one short of her career high with 15 rebounds and had a GNAC season-best six blocks helping SPU rally from an early 11-0 deficit.

Week of Feb. 15-21: Janee Olds, Northwest Nazarene (G, 5-8, Sr., Coos Bay, OR – North Bend) led a balanced attack with 27 points as the Crusaders solidified their playoff chances with 21 and 38-point road wins at Ellensburg and Billings. Olds, who became the 41 st member of the GNAC 1000-Point Club in the process increasing her career total to 1,010, made nine of 15 shots, including five of 10 three-pointers. She also had 11 rebounds and four steals. Both numbers ranked second on the club in NNU's sweep of Central Washington (79-58) and MSU Billings (85-47). Her five three-pointers and her four steals moved her into 14 th place in both categories on the GNAC All-Time career chart with 148 and 179, respectively.

Week of Feb. 22-28: Daesha Henderson, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-8, Sr., Snohomish, WA) scored 44 points in leading the Falcons to their eighth and ninth consecutive victories. She netted 30 points in a 74-48 win over the Wildcats and became the first Falcon to record a 30-point game since Michelle Beaumont tallied 35 against Cal State L.A. on Dec. 28, 2002. She made eight of 13 three-point shots, including six of nine against CWU in bettering her previous career high of 26 which also came against Central in 2009. Overall, she shot 60 percent from the floor (15 of 25) in the two contests and also had six rebounds, four assists and four steals.

Week of Mar. 1-7: Daesha Henderson, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-8, Sr., Snohomish, WA) and Jamey Gelhar, Saint Martin's (G, 5-6, Sr., Brush Prairie, WA). . . Henderson scored 33 points, including 21 in Saturday's 67-60 win at Anchorage as the Falcons wrapped up their fourth consecutive GNAC women's basketball title and their sixth overall in the nine-year history of the conference with a pair of wins in Alaska. Henderson's three-pointer from deep in the left corner with 3:06 to play put SPU ahead for good in Saturday's victory. She made five of 13 three-point shots and 10 of 12 free throws in her team's two victories. She also had 11 rebounds and five assists. . . Gelhar scored 43 points and also had six rebounds, six assists and four steals as the Saints closed out their season with two wins. She made 10 of 17 shots, including six of seven three-pointers. Gelhar was also 17 of 22 from the foul line. Though she didn't match last year's NCAA record free throw performance when she shot 96.9 percent, Gelhar still finished her career as the No. 2 career free throw shooter in NCAA Division II history making 89.2 percent (355-398). She ended the 2009-10 season with a 78.5 percentage converting on 73 of 93.

2010-11

Week of Nov. 8-14: Hanna Johansson, Alaska Anchorage (F, 6-2, Jr., Gothenburg, Sweden – Sanda) scored 41 points and had 27 rebounds to earn all-tournament honors and lead the Seawolves to a 2-1 record, including wins over pre-season favorites UC San Diego from the CCAA and Grand Canyon from the PacWest Conference at Disney's Tip-Off Classic at the Anaheim Convention Center. UAA lost its final game in double overtime to Texas Woman's, but still was declared tournament champion.

Week of Nov. 15-21: Lauren Hefflin, Western Washington (C, 6-2, Sr., Ridgefield, WA) had 25 points, 17 rebounds, five assists and three blocks in leading her team to wins against UC San Diego and San Francisco State in the Sodexo Tip-Off Classic at Brougham Pavilion. Offensively Hefflin, who was named to the all-tournament team, hit 12 of 18 shots in the two contests and defensively she helped hold SFSU to 24 points, the lowest single-game opponent total against a Division II team in conference history. Overall, it ranked eighth on the GNAC all-time charts in fewest points allowed. Hefflin also had an impressive performance against UC San Diego. "That's the best game I've seen Lauren (Hefflin) play," WWU coach Carmen Dolfo said. "She not only did a great job offensively, but she owned the boards and played really good defense."

Week of Nov. 22-28: Dara Zack, Saint Martin's (F, 5-10, Sr., Spokane, WA - University) had 24 points, 13 rebounds and seven assists as the Saints shared the title with host Western Washington in the 14th annual WWU Lynda Goodrich Classic. Zack, who was one of four GNAC players named to the all-tournament team, made eight of 22 shots and seven of nine free throws as the Saints earned 24 and 11-point victories to improve to 4-2 on the season. In the process, she moved into 15th place on the GNAC all-time career rebound list with 680.

Week of Nov. 29-Dec. 5: Sara Zahler, Western Oregon (F, 5-9, Sr., Newberg, OR and Kayla Ryan, Montana State Billings (F, 6-1, Sr., Big Timber, MT – Sweet Grass Country). . . Zahler scored 40 points leading the Wolves to conference wins over Northwest Nazarene and Central Washington. Zahler converted on 13 of 26 shots, including seven of 12 three-pointers. She also had nine rebounds. WOU's 2-0 start is the first time since 2001-02 it has won its first two conference games. . . Ryan nearly led Montana State Billings to a road sweep of Simon Fraser and Western Washington. She had a pair of double-doubles, scoring 32 points and pulling down 23 rebounds as the 'Jackets handed SFU its first home loss in three years before losing to the Vikings in overtime. In addition to her point and rebound total, she led MSUB with seven steals and a 46.2 shooting percentage (12-26).

Week of Dec. 6-12: Caitlyn Rohrbach, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-0, Sr., Edmonds, WA – Meadowdale) and Alysa Horn, Alaska Anchorage (F, 6-0, So, Kodiak, AK). . . Both Rohrbach and Horn led their teams to two wins including one over a previously unbeaten team. Rohrbach had 29 points, 17 rebounds, four assists and three steals and was named the Most Valuable Player in the Sonoma CCAA/GNAC Challenge as the Falcons beat Sonoma State Friday before handing Chico State its first loss of the season Saturday. . . Horn had 20 points and 11 rebounds in a 68-53 win over Dixie State snapping the Red Storm's eight-game win streak. She had 29 points, 17 rebounds and five steals in earning all-tournament honors at the UAA AT&T Hoops Classic. Horn made 10 of 19 shots, including four of seven three-pointers.

Week of Dec. 13-19: Megan Pinske, Western Washington (G, 5-9, Sr., Coquitlam, BC) was named the Most Valuable Player in the Great Western Shootout in Las Vegas as she led the Viking defense, which held its opponents to 87 points and a .301 shooting percentage with three steals. She also had a team-high 14 assists, 13 rebounds and 12 points in wins over St. Joseph's (Ind.) and St. Mary's (Tex.).

Week of Dec. 27-Jan. 2: Nyesha Sims, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-8, Jr., Portland, OR – Jefferson) led the Falcons to four wins, including a four-point victory over nationally 11th ranked Alaska Anchorage Monday night at Brougham Pavilion. Sims led SPU in four different categories in the four contests, including points (46), rebounds (25), assists (14) and steals (10). She had 26 points, 16 rebounds, nine assists and six steals in earning her second tournament MVP award (and her third all-tournament plaque) in the Falcon Invitational last Wednesday and Thursday. She then contributed 20 points, nine rebounds, five assists and four steals in conference wins over Alaska Fairbanks and Alaska Anchorage Saturday and Monday. Her three-pointer with 1:18 left snapped a 65-65 tie in Monday's 71-67 win over the Seawolves.

Week of Jan. 3-9: Bobbi Knudsen, MSU Billings (G, 5-8, Fr., Malta, MT) keyed the Yellowjackets' 59-50 win over Seattle Pacific both offensively and defensively. Knudsen had 11 points (including four in a closing 7-0 run), three rebounds, two assists and a steal in the nine-point victory as MSUB ended a nine-game losing streak to SPU and a 10-game losing streak at Brougham Pavilion. She also had the primary defensive assignment on SPU leading scorer Nyesha Sims, who came in averaging 12 points per game. Knudsen helped hold Sims to three points on one of eight shooting. Sims also had four turnovers. "It was a good team effort, but I thought Bobbi did a great job on Sims," MSUB coach Kevin Woodin said.

Week of Jan. 10-16: Dara Zack, Saint Martin's (F, 5-10, Sr., Spokane, WA – University) had 18 points to lead the Saints to a 61-53 victory over nationally 11th ranked Alaska Anchorage. In two wins, Zack had 32 points on 10 of 18 shooting (3 of 4 on three-pointers) and 12 rebounds. She now ranks 12th in GNAC history in career scoring with 1,322 points and 14th in rebounding with 745 and needs 12 points and 33 rebounds to move into the Top 10 in both categories.

Week of Jan. 17-23: Amanda Dunbar, Western Washington (G, 5-9, Sr., Marysville, WA – Marysville-Pilchuck) scored 46 points, including 25 in a 81-61 defeat of Alaska Anchorage. Dunbar also had six assists and four steals as WWU dropped the Seawolves to 34-3 in home conference games over the past five seasons. Dunbar made seven of 19 three-pointers in the two contests, increasing her career total to a GNAC-record 236 eclipsing the old record of 234 set by Seattle Pacific's Mandy Wood between 2003 and 2006. Dunbar currently ranks fifth in GNAC career scoring with 1,479 points. She also had 10 assists increasing her career total to 302 as she became the 14th player in conference history to record 300 or more assists.

Week of Jan. 24-30: Alysa Horn, Alaska Anchorage (F, 6-0, So., Kodiak, AK) scored a team-high 38 points in wins over Seattle Pacific and Montana State Billings as the Seawolves moved into second-place in the GNAC race. She made 14 of 27 field goal attempts and also had a team-high 13 rebounds and tied for the team-high with three steals. She had 17 in a 68-56 win against Seattle Pacific including a three-pointer to snap a 38-38 tie and put UAA ahead for good in the second half. She then scored six consecutive points during a closing 9-0 run in Saturday's 62-48 win over Montana State Billings.

Week of Jan. 31-Feb. 6: Amanda Dunbar, Western Washington (G, 5-9, Sr., Marysville, WA) scored 33 points and also had 10 assists leading the Vikings to double-digit wins against Seattle Pacific and Saint Martin's. Dunbar made 11 of 22 shots, including four of 11 three-pointers as WWU maintained a 2 ½ game lead over Alaska Anchorage in the conference race. Dunbar, who has had four 20-point games this winter, currently ranks fifth in GNAC history with 1,534 career points. She also ranks first all-time in three-pointers made with 242 and 14th in assists with 324.

Week of Feb. 7-13: Kayla Ryan, MSU Billings (F, 6-1, Sr., Big Timber, MT) scored 27 points and also had 31 rebounds in wins over Central Washington and Northwest Nazarene. In the latter contest, Ryan scored 18 points connecting on six of eight shots including her only three-point attempt. She also had 19 rebounds, six at the offensive end, three assists and three blocks as MSUB outlasted NNU in three overtimes.

Week of Feb. 14-20: Maddie Maloney, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-10, Sr., Issaquah, WA) scored 22 points connecting on eight of 12 shots and also had a team-high 10 assists and all five of the Falcons' blocked shots in road wins at Western Oregon and Saint Martin's. She contributed to eight points (two baskets, two assists) in a 13-0 run as SPU turned a 67-65 deficit against Western Oregon into a 78-67 lead late in the contest. Against Saint Martin's she helped hold Dara Zack, the GNAC's No. 6 all-time scorer with 1,460 points to five points on one of 11 shooting. "Maddie made some big shots and she played fantastic defense against one of the best players in the league (against Saint Martin's)," SPU coach Julie Heisey said.

Week of Feb. 21-27: Sara Zahler, Western Oregon (G, 5-9, Sr., Newberg, OR) scored 34 points and had 10 rebounds and five steals as the Wolves earned the sixth seed in the playoffs with road wins at Central Washington and Northwest Nazarene. Zahler made 10 of 17 shots, converting on four of eight three-point shots. She also converted on 10 of 11 free throws. Zahler has scored 993 career points and needs just seven more to become the 45th member of the GNAC 1000-Point Club.

2011-12

Week of Nov. 7-13: Haley Holmstead, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-8, Jr., American Fork, UT – Salt Lake CC) scored 41 points and also had eight assists as the Seawolves opened their season with 24- and 37-point wins over Minot State and 2011 regional qualifier Dixie State. Holmstead converted on 19 of 29 shots in the two contests as UAA shot at a 51.5 percent clip (68-132). Holmstead had 20 points and four assists in a 87-63 win over Minot State and 21 points, six rebounds and four assists in a 95-58 whipping of Dixie State.

Week of Nov. 14-20: Rachael Murray, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-9, Jr., Eglington, New South Wales, Australia) and Brianna King, Northwest Nazarene (P, 6-0, Sr., Redmond, OR). . .Murray was selected the MVP in the SPU Sodexo Classic as she scored 27 points and also had nine rebounds and five assists to lead the Falcons to wins over Cal State East Bay and Harding. Murray made 10 of 15 field goal attempts and all five of her foul shots in the 11 and 23-point victories. . .King scored 68 points and also had 39 rebounds as the Crusaders won two of three games, losing only to defending regional champion Cal Poly Pomona by seven points. King connected on 24 of 51 shots (47.1 percent) and 18 of 22 free throws.

Week of Nov. 21-27: Nayo Raincock-Ekunwe, Simon Fraser (F, 6-2, Jr., Vernon, BC – Kalamalka) led the Clan to a 1-1 record in the Cal State Monterey Bay Classic, scoring 31 points and grabbing 34 rebounds, including 22 in a five-point loss to Colorado State – Pueblo. Her 22 rebounds against Pueblo was just one shy of the GNAC single-game record. Raincock-Ekunwe also had four blocks and three steals. SFU lost by five points to Pueblo which posted a 16-11 record last season, then beat Monterey Bay which advanced to the NCAA Division II West Regional semifinals last March before losing.

Week of Nov. 28-Dec. 4: Jade Haas, Western Oregon (G, 5-10, Sr., Elma, WA – Lower Columbia) scored 40 points and had 11 rebounds leading the Wolves to 16- and 11-point wins over Central Washington and Northwest Nazarene, snapping a seven-game losing streak dating back to the end of the 2010-11 season. Haas made 18 of 30 shots in the two contests as she combined with teammate Rylee Peterson for 83 points. "Everyone expects Rylee to do it but where Jade has come from last season is amazing," said WOU head coach Greg Bruce. "She is a difference maker because I don't feel anyone can keep up with her. If we can get her the ball in the open floor I feel pretty good about that."

Week of Dec. 5-11: Haley Holmstead, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-8, Jr., American Fork, UT – Salt Lake CC) scored 45 points, shooting at a 64.5 percent clip (20 of 31), in earning Most Valuable Player honors in the AT&T Hoops Classic at Anchorage. Holmstead also had six rebounds, four assists and three steals as the Seawolves posted a pair of lopsided NCAA Division II West Region victories to remain unbeaten in seven Division II contests.

Week of Dec. 12-18: Kristin Schramm, Western Washington (F, 5-9, Sr., Chelan, WA) was named the Most Valuable Player in the Great Western Shootout after leading her team to impressive double-digit wins over Central Oklahoma and Drury. In the two contests, Schramm scored 34 points, connecting on 12 of 24 shots (6 of 12 from the arc). She also had eight rebounds and three assists. Schramm is averaging 12.2 points per game this season and currently ranks fourth in the conference in three-pointers made averaging 1.8 per contest.

Week of Dec. 26-Jan. 1: Hanna Johansson, Alaska Anchorage (F, 6-2, Sr., Gothenburg, Sweden) had two dominating performances in road wins at Central Washington and Northwest Nazarene. Johansson made 17 of 21 field goal attempts (81.0 percent) and 10 of 12 free throws (83.3 percent). She also finished with team highs for points (44), rebounds (22), assists (10), blocks (4) and steals (7). Johansson was a perfect eight of eight from the floor against NNU equaling the third most field goals made in a game without a miss in GNAC history. Only Kelley Berglund of Seattle Pacific who made 14 against UAA on Jan. 10, 2002 and Beth Johnson of Northwest Nazarene who made nine against Alaska Fairbanks on Jan. 28, 2010 have made more than eight without a miss.

Week of Jan. 2-8: Alysa Horn, Alaska Anchorage (F, 6-0, Jr., Kodiak, AK) led the Seawolves with 34 points, converting on 13 of 26 shots and all six of her free throws. Horn, who also had eight rebounds, scored 13 of her 15 points in Saturday's 23-point win over Seattle Pacific in the first half including a three-pointer to snap a 21-21 tie putting UAA ahead for good. She had 19 points in Thursday's 59-50 victory against Montana State Billings, scoring six straight to key a 12-2 run early in the second half as the Seawolves pulled away from a 26-26 halftime tie. Her average (17.0) and shooting percentage (50.0) in the two contests were a considerable improvement on her season averages of 10.3 points per game and 44.1 percentage.

Week of Jan. 9-15: Kristina Collins, Simon Fraser (G, 5-10, Jr., Port Coquitlam, BC – Riverside) was deadly from the arc as she made 10 of 15 to lead the Clan to wins over Alaska Anchorage and Alaska Fairbanks and remain the only team in the GNAC – female or male – to remain unbeaten at home. Collins made five of seven treys and scored 18 points against the Seawolves handing them their first Division II loss of the season. She then had 15 points and a game-high six assists, making five of eight three-pointers in a 25-point win over Alaska Fairbanks. In addition to her point total, Collins had 11 assists, two blocks and three steals in the two victories as SFU improved to 5-0 at home.

Week of Jan. 16-22: Nicole Hartzog, Alaska Fairbanks (G, 5-6, Fr., Beaverton, OR) and Alla Dzhidzhieshvili, Northwest Nazarene (G, 5-6, Sr., Ontario, OR – Treasure Valley) each led their respective teams to a pair of home victories. . . Hartzog was a standout both offensively and defensively as UAF posted back-to-back conference wins for the first time since 2008, ending a 21-game conference game-losing streak. Hartzog, who was perfect at the foul line making nine of nine, scored 29 points and also had 10 rebounds, nine steals and four assists in victories over Saint Martin's and Western Oregon. "Nicole plays excellent defense, has a great read on the ball and has quick hands," UAF coach Cody Burgess said. "Not only does she get the steal, but she usually converts on the layup (at the other end). She definitely has an edge defensively and transfers it over to the offensive end." . . Dzhidzhieshvili, who came into Saturday's game, ranked 12th nationally in steals averaging 3.3, had six steals and also scored 20 points as the Crusaders beat Western Washington 75-62. In two wins over teams who started the week with a combined four conference losses, she had 40 points, 11 steals, seven rebounds and five assists as NNU pulled to within a game of second place in the GNAC race.

Week of Jan. 23-29: Hanna Johansson, Alaska Anchorage (F, 6-2, Sr., Gothenburg, Sweden) and Brooke Tolman, Montana State Billings (G, 5-7, Jr., Honeyville, UT – Central Wyoming). . . Johansson scored 40 points and also had 27 rebounds, seven assists, four steals and three blocks as the Seawolves, the nation's No. 1 ranked team in scoring differential, outscored Northwest Nazarene and Central Washington by a combined margin of 72 points. Johansson, who made 17 of 26 shots, moved from 24 th place to 18th in career scoring (1,215) and from 17 th to 16 th in career rebounding (710). She also climbed three spots from 20 th to 17 th in career steals (177) and is now one of three players who currently rank on the GNAC Top 20 Career chart in all three categories. The other two are Rose Shaw of Central Washington (1998-99 to 2001-02) and Alysson Kollman of Northwest Nazarene (1998-00 to 2002-03) making Johansson the only one of the three to play her entire career in the GNAC era. . . Tolman came off the bench to lead the Yellowjackets to road wins at Lacey and Monmouth scoring a team-high 30 points. Tolman, who made seven of 12 treys, scored a season-high 19 points in Thursday's 57-41 win at Western Oregon converting on four of six three-pointers. She followed that performance up with 11 points Saturday afternoon in a six-point win at Saint Martin's as MSUB ran its road win streak to four. Overall MSUB has won eight of its last 10 games.

Week of Jan. 30-Feb. 5: Nyesha Sims, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-8, Sr., Portland, OR – Jefferson) scored 27 points and also had 32 rebound and 11 assists in leading the Falcons to two wins, including a 67-62 victory over No. 8 ranked Alaska Anchorage. Sims had 23 rebounds against Alaska Fairbanks to equal the GNAC single-game record set by Kristin Hein of Northwest Nazarene against Humboldt State on Dec. 12, 2009. She also broke the record for most rebounds in a conference game of 22 which had been shared by three players - SPU's Kristin Poe against Saint Martin's on Dec. 2, 2002; the Falcons' Carli Smith against Western Washington on Feb. 26, 2005 and Jenna Washington of Humboldt against Alaska Anchorage on Feb. 17, 2005.

Week of Feb. 6-12: Bobbi Knudsen, MSU Billings (G, 5-8, So., Malta, MT) scored 57 points in road victories at Ellensburg and Nampa. Knudsen scored 25 in Thursday's 61-52 win at Central Washington, then equaled a GNAC season-high with 32 in Saturday's 69-60 win at Northwest Nazarene. She made 23 of 42 shots, including seven of 14 three-pointers, and also had nine rebounds, six assists and three steals. Her 57 points represented 43.8 percent of MSUB's scoring in the two wins.

Week of Feb. 13-19: Corinn Waltrip, Western Washington (G, 5-6, Jr., Tigard, OR) and Nayo Raincock-Ekunwe, Simon Fraser (F, 6-2, Jr., Vernon, BC - Kalamalka). .Waltrip scored 33 points, connecting on seven of 12 three-points shots as the Vikings clinched no worse than a tie for second with wins over Northwest Nazarene and Central Washington. Waltrip's trey with 2:50 left against NNU put the Vikings up for good. Waltrip made 11 of 22 shots overall and also had seven rebounds and six assists. .Raincock-Ekunwe had 52 points and 26 rebounds as the Clan split two games. Nayo scored 37 points, equaling the sixth highest single-game total in GNAC history, in a 81-67 loss to Northwest Nazarene. It was the highest single-game total since Sheena Brown of Alaska Fairbanks scored 44 against Central Washington on Feb. 12, 2009. Raincock-Ekunwe, who extended her own GNAC record for most double-doubles in a season to 21, made 22 of 35 shots (62.9 percent) converting on 16 of 23 against NNU equaling the GNAC single-game record for most field goals made set by Leada Berkey of Western Oregon against Central Washington on Feb. 21, 2008.

Week of Feb. 20-26: Kristin Schramm, Western Washington (F, 5-9, Sr., Chelan, WA) and Brianna King, Northwest Nazarene (P, 6-0, Sr., Redmond, WA). .Both players led their teams to two victories to earn the No. 2 and No. 3 seeds, respectively, in the conference playoffs. Schramm had 35 points on 10 of 19 shooting as WWU closed its season with two road wins. The Vikings, who were 8-1 in the second half of the conference season, take a five-game win streak into the playoffs. .King had 27 points and 23 rebounds in home wins over Western Oregon and Saint Martin's as NNU finished in a three-way tie for third place and won the No. 3 seed based on its combined 3-1 record against Seattle Pacific and Simon Fraser.

2012-13

Week of Nov. 5-11: Erin Chambers, Simon Fraser (F, 6-1, So., Mission, BC) scored 51 points and also had 15 rebounds in leading the Clan to three victories, including wins over nationally eighth-ranked UC San Diego (61-58) and No. 13 Grand Canyon (69-60). Chambers connected on 14 of 25 field goals attempts (eight of 13 from beyond the arc) and also was perfect from the foul line making 15 of 15.

Week of Nov. 12-18: Sasha King, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-6, Sr., Norman, OK – Hutchinson) scored 35 points and also had 16 assists leading the Seawolves to 85-76 and 70-67 victories over Regis. King, who made six of 16 three-pointers, also had five steals.

Week of Nov. 19-25: Bobbi Knudsen, Montana State Billings (G, 5-8, Jr., Malta, MT) scored 44 points to lead the Yellowjackets to a pair wins in the MSUB Yellowjacket Classic. Knudsen, who was selected as the tournament MVP, scored a career and GNAC season-high 33 points in a 91-87 overtime win over Dixie State Friday, then had 11 points, seven rebounds and seven assists in a 80-44 win over Notre Dame de Namur. She played just 24 minutes in the latter contest.

Week of Nov. 26-Dec. 2: Janiel Olson, Montana State Billings (F, 5-10, So., Billings, MT) scored 21 points and grabbed 26 rebounds leading the Yellowjackets to 66-59 and 69-68 home wins over Central Washington and Northwest Nazarene, respectively. She also led MSUB in steals with seven. Olson had 13 points and 11 rebounds in Thursday's win against CWU, then had a career-high 15 rebounds, 10 at the offensive end in Saturday's one-point victory against Northwest Nazarene. Her final rebound came on a three-point miss by Monica Grimsrud with 24 seconds left. She then fed Grimsrud, who scored on a layup for the decisive basket.

Week of Dec. 3-9: Suzanna Ohlsen, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-7, So., Monroe, WA) scored 29 points as the Falcons split two games in the Chico West

Regional Classic. Ohlsen had an outstanding 9-1 assist to turnover ratio and also was deadly from the three-point arc (making 5 of 7) and from the foul line (converting on all eight of her attempts). She also had seven rebounds and a steal. Twenty-four of her points (a career high) came in Saturday's 89-77 loss at Chico. Twenty-one of those points came in the second half of the contest. Ohlsen currently ranks second nationally in assist/turnover ratio with a 3.56 mark.

Week of Dec. 10-16: Ally Schmitt, Central Washington (G, 5-8, Jr., Snohomish, WA – Montana State) set a GNAC single-game record with 16 assists in a 79-57 home win against Evergreen State. Schmitt also led the Wildcats in the contest with four steals.

Week of Dec. 17-23: Britt Harris, Western Washington (C, 6-2, Sr., Marysville, WA – Marysville-Pilchuck) and Alysa Horn, Alaska Anchorage (F, 6-0, Sr., Kodiak, AK) ... Harris earned MVP honors in the South Point Holiday Hoop Classic in Las Vegas as she scored 42 points and also had 13 rebounds, six assists and five steals leading the Vikings to wins over nationally sixth-ranked Washburn (64-62) and No. 15 Grand Canyon (72-68 in overtime). Harris converted on 14 of 30 field goal attempts and 14 of 19 free throws ... Horn was selected the Most Outstanding Player in the AT&T Hoops Classic in Anchorage. Week of Jan. 21-27: Alli Madison, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-8, So., Seattle, WA – Kennedy) had back-to-back career highs leading the Seawolves to road wins at Western Oregon (63-54) and Saint Martin's (48-45). Madison scored 15 points on six of 10 shooting and also had three assists and a career-high 10 rebounds at Monmouth, then had 17 points, five rebounds, five assists and a career-high four steals in playing all 40 minutes in Saturday's win at Lacey. She finished the road trip shooting 50 percent (12 of 24) from the floor and 60 percent (3 of 5) from the three-point line as UAA climbed into a three-way for fifth place at the midway point of the conference season.

Week of Jan. 28-Feb. 4: Trishi Williams, Western Washington (G, 5-9, Sr., Mabton, WA - CBC) had 11 points, 10 rebounds and 11 assists in a 83-72 win against Alaska Anchorage posting just the third triple-double in school history and the first since 1994-95. She finished the weekend with 26 points, 15 rebounds and 13 assists as the Vikings stayed unbeaten in the GNAC running their win streak to 11 games.

Week of Feb. 5-11: Kylie Burns, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-9, Jr., Kansas City, KS – Bishop Ward) scored 33 points and also had 19 rebounds leading the Seawolves to home wins over Seattle Pacific and Montana State Billings, the two teams directly ahead of them in the conference standings. Burns scored 20 of her career-high 22 points in the second half and also had eight rebounds as the Seawolves completed a regular-season series sweep from Seattle Pacific for the first-time in GNAC history with a 93-82 victory Thursday. She then recorded her second double-double of the season on Saturday (11 points, 11 rebounds) in a 61-55 win over Montana State Billings. Burns, who had three assists and no turnovers in 40 minutes, made the game-clinching free throws with 19 seconds remaining.

Week of Feb. 12-18: Corinn Waltrip, Western Washington (G, 5-6, Sr., Tigard, OR) and Katie Benson, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-1, Jr., Snohomish, WA) ... Both Waltrip and Benson netted 50 points in a pair of contests. Waltrip had a GNAC season-high 36 points in a 80-76 overtime win over Seattle Pacific Saturday. She made 11 of 19 shots against the Falcons, including eight of 13 three-pointers. Her eight treys equaled the fourth highest single-game total in GNAC history. In her two contests, she shot 59.3 percent (16 of 27), converting on 10 of 15 three-pointers and was perfect from the foul line (8 of 8). She also had 10 assists ... Benson made 17 of 30 shots and 13 of 14 free throws as SPU nearly pulled off a sweep of two nationally Top 10 ranked teams. Benson had a career-high 32 points and 10 rebounds Thursday in a 70-60 win over No. 8 Simon Fraser. She then tallied 18 points and had nine rebounds in an overtime loss to No. 9 Western Washington. Benson, who joined the 1,000-point club Thursday, also had five steals and was perfect from the three-point line (3 of 3) in the two contests. She now ranks 49th in GNAC history with 1,040 points.

Week of Feb. 19-25: Samantha Thornton, Alaska Fairbanks (F, 5-11, Jr., Bremerton, WA – Umpqua) and Kristina Collins, Simon Fraser (G, 5-10, Sr., Port Coquitlam, BC) ... Thornton led the Nanooks to their second and third consecutive wins after starting the conference season with 14 straight losses. She scored 27 points and also had 14 rebounds, five steals and three blocked shots in home wins over Western Oregon (55-40) and Saint Martin's (67-65). In the latter game, she scored six of the Nanooks' 10 points in the overtime period ... Collins led the Clan to wins over Central Washington (67-60) and Northwest Nazarene (73-52) as SFU clinched a first-round bye in the conference tournament. In the two wins, she had 27 points and a team-high 14 assists while being charged with just a single turnover. She also was a standout defensively as SFU limited the Wildcats and Crusaders to a 56.0 point per game average and a 22.2 shooting percentage (6 of 27) from the three-point arc.

Week of Feb. 26-Mar. 3: Nayo Raincock-Ekunwe, Simon Fraser (F, 6-2, Sr., Toronto, ON) scored 41 points and had 23 rebounds as the Clan rolled to road wins at Western Oregon and Saint Martin's. She missed just six shots converting on 16 of 22 raising her GNAC career-record percentage to 60.5 percent.

2013-14

Week of Nov. 4-10: Jordan Wilson, Alaska Fairbanks (F, 5-11 Fr., Henderson, CO – Prairie View) posted a double-double with 27 points and 12 rebounds in her first career collegiate game. Wilson helped the Nanooks to an 87-72 victory over Western New Mexico, marking the first time UAF has won its season opener in four seasons. Wilson also notched an assist while shooting 10-of-11 from the field and sinking seven free throws on 10 attempts.

Week of Nov. 11-17: Katie Benson, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-1, Sr., Snohomish, WA - Snohomish) averaged a double-double with 18 points and 12.5 rebounds in a pair of Falcon wins last week as SPU has started the 2013-14 campaign 4-0. Sixteen of Benson's 25 total rebounds were defensive, and she also turned in six steals and four blocks while committing just two turnovers. Overall, the senior shot 14-of-25 from the field and drained 7-of-8 free throws while averaging 25 minutes of action per game. Benson's 17 rebounds on Saturday night against Point Loma Nazarene tied her career high, and she was named tournament Most Valuable Player for the SPU-hosted Sodexo Tip-Off Classic.

Week of Nov. 18-24: Katie Benson, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-1, Sr., Snohomish, WA – Snohomish) led the GNAC in scoring (28.5) and rebounding (11.5), and was second in blocks (3.0) and field goal percentage (.667) last week as the Falcons won a pair of games to improve to 6-0. Benson also shot 83 percent from the free throw line and turned in seven steals while converting three-of-four attempts from long distance.

Week of Nov. 25 – Dec. 1: Kiki Robertson, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-7, Fr., Honolulu, HI – Mid-Pacific) averaged 16.5 points and grabbed a dozen rebounds in a pair of games against Division I competition last week in the Great Alaska Shootout. Robertson averaged 34 minutes on the court, contributing a GNAC-high 12 steals and 11 assists in a victory against UC Riverside and a loss to Georgetown. Robertson shot 39 percent from the field, while turning in a solid 1.6 assist-turnover ratio.

Week of Dec. 2-8: Dana Goularte, Western Oregon (F, Jr., Port Orchard, WA – South Kitsap) averaged a double-double with 22.5 points and 12 rebounds in the Wolves' loss to No. 18 Northwest Nazarene and victory over Central Washington. Goularte averaged 36.0 minutes, shooting .538 from the floor and .800 from the free-throw line. She racked up four assists and six blocks and became the first WOU player since 2005 to grab 17 rebounds in a game when she accomplished the feat against NNU on Thursday. "She had one of the best all around performances I've ever seen," WOU head coach Holli Howard-Carpenter commented on Goularte's performance against NNU. "She defended, made some great passes and was a beast on the boards." The double-figure scoring performances gave her 22 total in her career, and her double-double on Thursday was the eighth of Goularte's career and third this season.

Week of Dec. 9-15: Krista Stabler, Saint Martin's (G, 5-6, So., Silverdale, WA – Central Kitsap) finished with a career-high 18 points on 5-of-9 shooting from the field while she was 8-of-10 from the line against Hawaii Hilo on Saturday. She also had career highs in rebounds with six and assists with four while adding two steals and committing zero turnovers in 27 minutes off the bench.

Week of Dec. 16-22: Bobbi Knudsen, MSU Billings (G, 5-8, Sr., Malta, MT) scored 32 points while dishing out 17 assists and grabbing 14 rebounds in a pair of South Point Holiday Hoops Classic games. Knudsen led the Yellowjackets to a 78-58 win over Texas Woman's and was instrumental in MSUB's one-point loss to No. 6 Drury. Trailing by two points in the final minute against the Panthers, Knudsen drove into the paint, scored a layup and drew a foul. After converting the free throw to give MSUB a one-point lead with six seconds left, Drury got a buzzer-beater from 18 feet to shock the Yellowjackets and escape with the victory. "Bobbi played some incredible basketball over the two games," MSUB head coach Kevin Woodin said. "Our team played the two best games we have all season, and Bobbi was a top contributor in both contests."

Week of Dec. 30 – Jan. 5: Bobbi Knudsen, MSU Billings (G, 5-8, Sr., Malta, MT) had 55 points, 12 assists, and four steals and was a perfect 10-for-10 from the free-throw line with five rebounds. She led the team to an 81-63 win over Simon Fraser and an 82-69 win over Western Washington. In the game against SFU, Knudsen had a team-high 18 points, six assists and two steals. In the win over WWU, Knudsen had a career-high 37 points, making 14-of-21 shots, including 3-of-4 from 3-point territory, for a shooting percentage of 66.6. Her 37 points is the highest by a women's player in the GNAC this season. "Bobbi Knudsen played a special game tonight," head coach Kevin Woodin said. "She had 37 points, and had six assists to only one turnover. It is probably one of the best perimeter games I have ever witnessed."

Week of Jan. 6-12: Sydney Donaldson, Western Washington (F, 6-0, Jr., Edmonds, WA – Edmonds-Woodway) averaged a double-double with 18.0 points and 12.0 rebounds in a pair of WWU victories that extended the Vikings' home win streak to 24 straight and pushed them over .500 on the season at 7-6 overall and 3-2 in GNAC play. Donaldson powered WWU in a 71-64 victory over Central Washington on Thursday, leading all scorers with 21 points while grabbing nine rebounds, blocking five shots and dishing out five assists. The junior shot 8-for-10 from the field and 4-for-6 from beyond the 3-point line. On Saturday, Donaldson turned in 15 points while collecting 15 rebounds and posting four blocks and four assists in a 81-68 win over Northwest Nazarene. In all, Donaldson shot .583 from the field (14-for-24) and totaled nine assists and nine blocks against just three turnovers in 68 minutes on the floor last week.

Week of Jan. 13-19: Sarah Hill, Western Washington (F, 6-3, Sr., Richmond, VA – Maryland-Baltimore County) scored 27 points and grabbed a GNAC-high 30 rebounds to help WWU to a pair of victories that extended the Vikings' winning streak to four games. Hill shot 10-for-22 from the field while averaging 32.0 minutes per contest last week. The senior also contributed three blocks, three steals and an assist. On Thursday, Hill notched a big double-double as she led all scorers and rebounders with 18 points and 16 boards in a 78-58 triumph over Western Oregon. Hill just missed a double-double on Saturday, scoring nine points and turning in a game-high 14 rebounds in WWU's 79-73 win over first-place Saint Martin's in Lacey. The wins propelled WWU into a four-way tie atop the GNAC standings, and Hill now ranks No. 8 in the conference in rebounds per game with 7.5.

Week of Jan. 20-26: Erin Chambers, Simon Fraser (G/F, 6-1, Jr., Mission, BC – Heritage Park) led Simon Fraser to a pair of victories as she scored 64 points while shooting .629 (22-for-35) from the floor and .412 (7-for-17) from 3-point range. Chambers also converted 13-of-14 free throws and grabbed 10 rebounds while playing all 80 minutes for the Clan last week. On Thursday, the junior helped SFU edge Alaska Fairbanks by two points as she scored 30 points and hauled in five rebounds. Chambers was even better in a four-point victory over Alaska Anchorage on Saturday, notching 34 points, five more rebounds and three assists. Chambers maintained her spot atop the GNAC scoring leaders, boosting her average to 22.8 points per game as she has scored a conference-high 387 points so far in 2013-14.

Week of Jan. 27 – Feb. 2: Taylor Simmons, Northwest Nazarene (G, 5-8, So., Middleton, ID – Middleton) scored 36 points and grabbed 10 rebounds last week as the Crusaders defeated Alaska Fairbanks 86-81 and lost by just two to Alaska Anchorage on the road. Simmons was instrumental in both victories, dishing out 13 assists and providing a conference-high 12 steals. The sophomore point guard also shot .476 (10-for-21) from the field and .789 (15-for-19) from the foul line in the victories. Simmons also played a team-high 68 minutes in the two games.

Week of Feb. 3-9: Chelsea Haskey, Saint Martin's (F, 6-1, Sr., Olympia, WA – Black Hills) scored 28 points and also had 12 rebounds, four steals and a pair of blocks leading the Saints to home wins over Alaska Anchorage and Alaska Fairbanks. She had 13 points, five rebounds, two assists, two blocks and three steals in Thursday's 56-46 win over UAA. On Saturday, she netted 15 points and also had seven rebounds to key a 67-66 win over UAF.

Week of Feb. 10-16: Megan Hingston, Northwest Nazarene (G, 5-9, Sr., Keizer, OR – McNary) scored 20 points in the Crusaders' first-ever win at Seattle Pacific on Saturday, and also logged four rebounds and an assist in the critical victory to help keep NNU's hopes for a GNAC tournament berth alive. The instrumental performance came two nights after a 14-point 7-rebound effort against conference-leading MSUB. Hingston currently leads the Crusaders in scoring average (16.0) and rebounding (7.7), and ranks fifth in the GNAC in both categories.

Week of Feb. 17-23: Suzanna Ohlsen, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-7, Jr., Monroe, WA – Monroe) pumped in a career-high 25 points – accounting for nearly half of the Falcons' total of 54 – and also grabbed a career-high eight rebounds on Thursday night, leading them to a 54-44 victory at Saint Martin's. Ohlsen hit 10-of-12 from the floor, including 3-of-4 from downtown, handed out three assists, and had four steals – converting all four into coast-to-coast lay-ups, and scored seven points during a decisive 10-0 run that snapped a 28-28 tie and put SPU in front for good at 38-28. She followed that with 12 points, six rebounds, five assists, and one steal on Saturday as the Falcons won at Western Oregon, 76-64. Ohlsen also hit all four of her free throws for the week, extending her streak to 31 in a row and pushing her GNAC-leading average above 90 percent to .904.

Week of Feb. 24 – March 2: Amber Moser, Central Washington (F/C, 6-0, Sr., Willamina, OR – Sheridan) scored 18 points and added five rebounds, two assists a steal and a block to lead CWU to a 74-58 win over Western Oregon on Thursday evening. The senior was 8-for-8 from the field in the contest and 2-for-3 from the foul line. On Saturday, Moser led her team in scoring for the second-straight game, logging 12 points in a 59-52 loss to Saint Martin's in her final collegiate game. Moser was a perfect 6-for-6 from the foul line on Saturday, and added four rebounds, three assists, three blocks and a steal in 34 minutes on the hardwood.
