#NotThrowingAwayHisShot Central Washington's Donte Hamilton was named the GNAC Defensive Player of the Week after he led CWU with nine tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and a fumble recovery.

#HesGotLegs Simon Fraser's Kees Metselaar booted a 71-yard punt in the first quarter of Saturday's game against Western Oregon. The punt is the ninth-longest in GNAC history.

#HomeCooking After four straight road games, Western Oregon plays at home for the first time this season on Saturday. The Wolves will play four of their final six games in Monmouth.

Western Oregon Can't Wait To Finally Head Home

When Western Oregon takes the field on Saturday against West Texas A&M, it will have been 686 days since the Wolves have played in front of their home crowd.

And after playing the entire month of September on the road, WOU hopes that it will parlay some of the momentum that it built last weekend into some wins over the next six games.

Western Oregon closed the four-game season-opening road trip on Saturday with a 24-7 victory at Simon Fraser in WOU's first conference game of the season. The game was close at the half, with the Wolves leading 7-0 before outscoring SFU 17-7 in the final 30 minutes to secure the victory.

The ground game accounted for 330 of the Wolves' 412 yards of total offense, led by junior running back Omari Land's 209 yards on 25 carries with two touchdowns. The effort earned Land selection as the GNAC Offensive Player of the Week.

Junior Marquis Sampson earned GNAC Special Teams Player of the Week accolades for his prowess in the return game, running back five punts for 56 yards and the opening kickoff of the second half for 52 yards.

With the four-game road trip in the rear-view mirror, Western Oregon will play four of its final six games at McArthur Field.

Simon Fraser played its last two games at home and will be on the road for the remainder of the season. This Saturday's scheduled home game against UT-Permian Basin was canceled, which means SFU will not play until traveling to Montana State-Northern on October 16.

Central Washington made its 2021 home debut on Saturday after three weeks on the road, locking horns in a defensive struggle with Angelo State. The Wildcats held the Rams to 258 yards of total offense but all of the scoring that CWU could find was three Patrick Hegarty field goals in a 14-9 loss.

Senior Donte Hamilton was named the GNAC Defensive Player of the Week for the second straight week after he made nine tackles, including 3.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, a fumble recovery and two pass breakups.

Central Washington will face another stiff Lone Star Conference foe this weekend, hosting No. 11 Midwestern State.
