GNAC News & Notes

HEADING SOUTH FOR THE SHOWCASE: With the opening weekend of the 2018 season in the books, all 11 GNAC teams will head south to California for the fifth D2 West Region Volleyball Showcase. Hosted this year by the PacWest Conference, the tournament's six pods are spread out across three sites in the Los Angeles area, two in the Bay Area and one in Fresno.

This is the third year that the Showcase will feature teams from all three West Region conferences, which has gone a long way to help the GNAC earn postseason bids. In the first two years with all three conferences, the GNAC has seen nine teams advance to the NCAA Division II West Regional: five in 2016 and four in 2017.

The GNAC enters with a .599 win percentage in the four years of the crossover tournament. The conference has a 69-45 record in four years against PacWest Conference teams and a 28-12 record in three years against CCAA programs.

Northwest Nazarene has the GNAC's best record in the Showcase with a 14-2 mark in four years. The Nighthawks went 4-0 in 2014, 2016 and 2017. Both Alaska Anchorage and Western Washington are 13-3 in the Showcase.

LANE, LANE GO AWAY: A trip to paradise to open the season turned into a stormy experience for the Saint Martin's and Simon Fraser volleyball teams. The two programs each lost two matches at the Hawai'i Challenge in Hilo thanks to the effects of Hurricane Lane. While the storm did not make a direct hit on the Big Island, the outer bands of the storm dropped as much as 40 inches of rain in Hilo itself and as much as 51 inches on other parts of the island.
