#TakeTheWest For the first time this season, four GNAC teams find themselves in the latest United Soccer Coaches West Region rankings poll. Simon Fraser remained idle at No. 4. Saint Martin's climbed one spot to No. 9 while Western Washington and Northwest Nazarene make their 2019 debuts at No. 7 and 10, respectively.

#ComebackKids Seattle Pacific was down 3-0 to Point Loma then scored three unanswered goals to send the game into overtime. Titus Grant scored the golden goal for the Falcons in double overtime.

#RollVikings Western Washington split last week's games, but still ride momentum heading into conference play after topping Point Loma and forcing overtime with then No. 3 Azusa Pacific. Camron Miller earned GNAC Defensive Player of the Week honors after anchoring a Viking defense that allowed just four shots on goal in the two matches.

#HeadingNorth Saint Martin's will face its first true test of the season when it travels north of the border to open GNAC play at Simon Fraser on Thursday in Burnaby. The Saints are riding a three-game winning streak heading into conference play.
