GNAC News & Notes

IT'S TIME FOR THE SHOWCASE: For the second straight season, every Division II West Region volleyball program comes together for a massive three-day crossover classic. The D2 West Region Showcase is hosted this season by the GNAC, with teams playing in five conference cities and San Francisco.

The six-team pods are determined by the placing in the previous year's regular season conference standings. Alaska Anchorage hosts the No. 1 and 2 place teams. Northwest Nazarene hosts the third and fourth place teams and Central Washington hosts the fifth and sixth place teams. The No. 7 and 8 teams from each conference are at Western Oregon and the ninth and 10th place teams compete at Saint Martin's. The remaining teams will compete in the San Francisco pod at San Francisco State.

The GNAC dominated competition in 2016, going 31-13. Of the 11 conference programs, seven finished with winning records in the showcase. Combined with the first two years of the crossover event, which pitted GNAC teams against the PacWest, the GNAC has a 68-40 record.

ALASKA ANCHORAGE PICKED TO REPEAT AS CHAMPIONS: Alaska Anchorage and Western Washington are picked No. 1 and No. 2 in a very close 2017 GNAC Volleyball Preseason Coaches Poll, released on Aug. 22. The Seawolves, the defending NCAA Division II national runner-up, received five first place votes and a total of 110 points. The Vikings, who fell to UAA in the West Region championship match, picked up three first place votes and a total of 109 points.

Northwest Nazarene, which won its first ever NCAA Tournament match last season, is picked a close third with the remaining first place votes and a total of 106 points.

The GNAC's two other regional contenders are picked fourth and fifth with Central Washington earning 89 points and Simon Fraser earning 77 points. Concordia is picked sixth with 67 points followed by Western Oregon (50 pts.), Seattle Pacific (46 pts.), Saint Martin's (26 pts.), Alaska (25 pts.) and Montana State Billings (21 pts.).
