GNAC News & Notes

PLENTY TO PLAY FOR IN THE FINAL WEEK: The final week of the 2018 GNAC softball regular season will be an exciting one as five teams remain in contention for three remaining spots in next week's GNAC Championships.

The only sure thing is that Northwest Nazarene will be there. The Nighthawks (17-7) clinched their first-ever GNAC Championships appearance with a four-game sweep of Concordia in Portland over the weekend. Now comes the chance to secure the program's first-ever GNAC regular-season championship. Any combination of three Northwest Nazarene wins or Central Washington losses will send a trophy to Nampa.

In second place at 15-9, Central Washington needs to win two of their remaining four games against Saint Martin's to guarantee a return to the tournament. The Saints currently sit in third place with a 13-11 GNAC mark.

Three teams are tied with a .500 win/loss percentage for the fourth and final spot in the tournament: Western Oregon (12-12), Simon Fraser (12-12) and Montana State Billings (11-11). Western Oregon will host Simon Fraser and Western Washington in the final weekend, while Simon Fraser also plays at Concordia. Montana State Billings will host Northwest Nazarene for four games.

The GNAC Softball Championships starts next Thursday, May 3, at Concordia's Porter Park in Portland. Advance tickets are available for purchase at GNACTickets.com.

RENNEY RETIRING: After almost 24 years leading the Simon Fraser softball program, head coach Mike Renney has announced that he will retire at the end of the season.

Renney has won 635 games and has a .639 winning percentage as SFU's head coach and coached his 1,000th game for the school last Sunday. He coached Simon Fraser to 14 NAIA National Championships appearances and won NAIA titles in 1999, 2003, 2005 and 2010. Renney led SFU to a second-place GNAC finish in 2012 and a GNAC Championships appearance in 2013.

In addition to his work at Simon Fraser, Renney was a Team Canada coach for the three Olympics and was the head coach for Team Canada at the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.
