Around The GNAC

A THREE-OVERTIME THRILLER: Western Oregon and San Francisco State provided fans at the WOU/Doubletree by Hilton D2 Shootout quite the game on Friday, going three extra periods before the Gators came away with the 99-93 three-overtime win at the New PE Building.

The Gators led by as much as eight points late in the second half before the Wolves charged back and forced overtime when Bryan Berg scored with 24 seconds left in the second half to knot it at 63-63. The two teams matched each other point for point until SF State scored the final five points of the third extra period to close the game.

The game was just the fifth three-overtime contest in GNAC history and only the seventh game in league history to go longer than two overtimes. The GNAC's last three-overtime game was on Feb. 13, 2014, with Alaska winning at Northwest Nazarene 108-104. Western Oregon has played in one other three-overtime game in its GNAC history, beating Central Washington 118-113 on Dec. 1, 2012.

THREE GNAC GAMES TO AIR ON ROOT SPORTS: For the eighth consecutive year, Great Northwest Athletic Conference basketball will be featured throughout the Northwest on ROOT SPORTS.

The conference and the regional sports network have agreed to a three-game schedule that will feature six different GNAC men's basketball programs. The slate begins on Thurs., Jan. 19, with Montana State Billings playing at Saint Martin's in a game that will tip off at 9 p.m. (Pacific).

Two games will air in February. Western Oregon will host Seattle Pacific on Sat., Feb. 4, for a 5 p.m. (Pacific) tip off. One of the conference's top rivalries completes the schedule as Central Washington plays host to Western Washington on Thurs., Feb. 16, at 8 p.m. (Pacific).

IT'S SHOOTOUT TIME: Once again, the eyes of many in the college basketball world will again be on Anchorage as Alaska Anchorage hosts the 38th GCI Great Alaska Shootout over the Thanksgiving weekend. The Seawolves will play host to seven Division I programs: Buffalo, Oakland, Nevada, Drake, Iona, UC Davis and Weber State. Alaska Anchorage will play Buffalo in the first round on Wednesday at 7 p.m. (Alaska).

All four first round games, along with the semifinals and championship game, will be aired on the CBS Sports Network.

First played in 1978, the Great Alaska Shootout is the longest continuously running non-championship men's basketball tournament in the nation.

AGAINST DIVISION I TEAMS: Alaska Anchorage will aim to be the first GNAC team to beat a Division I team this season. The league is currently 0-7 on the season against the big boys, but a number of GNAC teams have come close to breaking through.

Saint Martin's played Eastern Washington to within 11 points on Oct. 30, falling 80-69. A week later, the Saints played Cal State Fullerton much closer before dropping a 70-67 decision on Nov. 5.

Western Washington gave Washington a handful at Seattle on Nov. 3, eventually falling to Lorenzo Romar's squad 109-103. The closest GNAC contest, however, came in El Paso as Alaska led for the first 28 minutes in its contest with UTEP on Nov. 5. The game would go overtime before the Miners pulled away for the 87-85 victory.
