GNAC BASEBALL ALL-TIME PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

2002

Week of Feb. 11-17: Player - Chris Ridenour, Western Oregon (2B, 6-0, Jr., Bend, OR) had eight hits (in 17 at bats), including three doubles and two home runs, in a four-game series against nationally 16th ranked Chico State. Ridenour also scored six runs and drove in seven, accounting for 11 of WOU's 19 runs in series. Pitcher - None selected.

Week of Feb. 18-24: Player - Joey Price, Western Oregon (OF, 5-11, 185, Sr., Lakeview, OR) had five hits in 13 at bats, including three doubles, as the Wolves won two of three games from Concordia. Price scored five runs, drove in five and stole four bases. Pitcher - Paul Arellano, Central Washington (P, 5-10, 175, Sr., Boise, ID - Borah) allowed just one hit in six innings in a 4-1 win over Pacific Sunday. Arellano, who walked one and struck out two, had a perfect game through 4 2/3 innings and a no-hitter before surrendering a leadoff home run in the sixth.

Week of Feb. 25-Mar. 3: Player - Bryan Miller, Saint Martin's (3B, 5-11, 210, Jr., Cheney, WA) and Brendan Smith, Northwest Nazarene (OF, 6-1, 190, Sr., San Jose, CA). . Miller led the Saints to their first two wins of the season. In five games, Miller batted .524 (11 of 21) and posted a .714 slugging average. He also scored eight runs and drove in seven. . Smith had a .667 batting average (8 of 12) and a slugging average twice that (.1333) in leading NNU to three wins. Among his eight hits were two doubles and two home runs. One of his four-baggers came in the opening game of the series and tied the game 7-7 in the seventh. The Crusaders then added three more runs to win it 10-7. His second blast snapped a 4-4 tie in a 6-4 win in Saturday's first game. Pitcher - Neil Elder, Northwest Nazarene (P, 6-1, 190, Jr., Eagle, ID) allowed just three hits and no runs in 4 2/3 innings in Friday's 10-7 win over Saint Martin's. He then homered in his only at bat in a 6-4 win Saturday.

Week of Mar. 4-10: Player - Matt Lowe, Northwest Nazarene (OF, 6-3, 215, Jr., Aloha, OR - Hillsboro) had a double and home run and drove in 10 runs as the Crusaders won four of six games, dividing doubleheaders with Albertson and Whitworth and sweeping a pair of games with Eastern Oregon. Lowe, who had six hits in 18 at bats, has had one or more RBI (12 total) in seven consecutive games. Pitcher - Travis Anderson, Western Oregon (OF-P, 6-3, 200, Sr., Newport, OR) pitched a five-hit shutout in a 2-0 win over UC Davis. Anderson walked three and struck out three. He also had three hits, including a home run, and drove in two runs as the Wolves won three of four games in the series at Davis.

Week of Mar. 11-17: Player - Joey Price, Western Oregon (OF, 5-11, 185, Sr., Lakeview, OR), who leads the conference in multiple-hit games with 10, had four hits in a doubleheader sweep of Cal State Stanislaus. Price scored three runs and drove in two and also stole two bases as he extended his hitting streak to 14 games. Pitcher - Neil Elder, Northwest Nazarene (P, 6-1, 190, Jr., Eagle, ID) pitched a one-hit shutout against Oregon Tech to lower his earned run average to a league-best 1.04. Elder walked one and struck out nine.

Week of Mar. 18-24: Player - Chris Ridenour, Western Oregon (2B, 6-0, 185, Jr., Bend, OR) hit three home runs and drove in nine runs to lead the Wolves to three wins in four games. Ridenour had six hits in 14 at bats and slugged for a 1.143 average. On the season, he leads the GNAC in doubles (10), home runs (7), slugging percentage (.744) and runs batted in (30). Pitcher - Ryan Petersen, Western Oregon (6-5, So., Salem, OR - Sprague) struck out a league single-game high 10 hitters in a 7-4 win over Northwest Nazarene Saturday. In eight innings Peterson allowed just five hits and two earn runs in earning his third victory of the season in four decisions.

Week of Mar. 25-31: Player - Toby Bottorff, Western Oregon (C, 6-0, 200, Sr., Cottage Grove, OR) batted .545 as the Wolves won all five of their games during the week. Bottorff had six hits in 11 at bats, including a home run. He also drove in six runs and stole two bases. Defensively, he didn't allow a stolen base and threw out two runners. Pitcher - Jon Corkery, Saint Martin's (5-11, 175, Sr., Bellingham, WA) used only 81 pitches to pitch the Saints to a 12-2 win over Puget Sound. Corkery, who leads the GNAC in fewest walks (1.23 per nine innings), didn't walk a batter and allowed just four hits. He fanned six.

Week of Apr. 1-7: Player - Tim Andra, Northwest Nazarene (2B, 5-10, 175, Fr., Lynnwood, WA - Nampa HS) and Shawn Dunaway, Saint Martin's (SS, 6-0, 180, Jr., Springfield, OR - Southwestern Oregon). . Andra had 12 hits in 21 at bats as the Crusaders won two of six games. Andra, who went four-for-four and drove in three runs in a 11-9 win over Eastern Oregon on Tuesday, had a double and home run among his 12 safeties. Dunaway batted .407 (12 of 27) as the Saints divided six games. He also had two doubles, scored six runs and drove in six. Pitcher - Ryan Peterson, Western Oregon (6-5, 195, So., Salem, OR - Sprague) allowed just five hits and didn't walk a batter or allow a run while fanning 10 in a seven-inning stint against Northwest Nazarene Saturday.

Week of Apr. 8-14: Player - John Thomas, Central Washington (DH, 6-2, 190, Jr., Snohomish, WA) and Matt Lowe, Northwest Nazarene (OF, 6-3, 215, Jr., Aloha, OR). . Thomas drove in 10 runs, including eight in Central's doubleheader sweep on Friday, as the Wildcats divided a four-game series with NNU. He had five hits in 14 at bats, including one triple and two home runs. Lowe batted .600 with nine hits in 15 at bats. Among his nine hits were a pair of doubles and two home runs. He also drove in six runs, including the game-winner in Saturday's 8-5 victory. Pitcher - James Porter, Northwest Nazarene (6-3, 225, So., Greenleaf, ID) became only the third pitcher in the GNAC to throw a shutout this spring as he blanked Central Washington 7-0 Saturday on five hits. Porter didn't walk a batter and fanned eight in winning his league-leading fifth game against four losses.

Week of Apr. 15-21: Player - Greg McCarthy, Western Oregon (Catcher, 6-2, 195, Fr., Corvallis, OR - Crescent Valley) had nine hits, including three doubles and four home runs, and drove in 10 runs in the Wolves' four-game sweep of Central Washington. He batted a team-best .562 in the series and also scored nine runs. For the week, he had 11 hits, including five doubles and four home runs, and drove in 13 runs in seven contests. He also threw out three of four base runners attempting to steal. Pitcher - Josh Samter, Western Oregon (5-9, 165, Sr., Lake Havasu City, AZ) and Walt Simpson, Saint Martin's (6-5, 260, Jr., Tenino, WA). . Samter won a pair of games, including a one-hit shutout over Central Washington. In 15 innings, he allowed just seven hits and four runs and struck out 14. Against CWU, he retired the final 22 batters after surrendering a two-out single in the second inning. . Simpson allowed just five hits and one run in 5 2/3 innings of relief, pitching the Saints to an 8-6 win over NAIA powerhouse Lewis-Clark State. In two appearances during the week, he posted a 3.52 ERA in 7 2/3 innings.

Week of Apr. 22-28: Player - Jake Burns, Central Washington (OF, 6-0, 220, Jr., Kennewick, WA - Southridge) had seven hits in 16 at bats and drove in seven runs as the Wildcats won three of four games with Saint Martin's. Burns' two-run single snapped a 4-4 eighth inning tie in CWU's 7-4 opening-game win on Saturday, then his sacrifice fly in the opening inning in the nightcap got the 'Cats off to a quick start in a 5-3 win. On Sunday, CWU lost the opener to the Saints 4-2, but then scored twice in the seventh on a RBI double by Trevor Knight and an RBI single by Burns to win the second game 5-3. Pitcher - Brad Foss, Northwest Nazarene (3B-P, 6-2, 220, Sr., Baldwin Park, CA) allowed just one run in five innings of relief as the Crusaders overcame an 8-0 deficit to defeat Concordia 11-10 in 12 innings. Among Hatfield's three hits were a pair of doubles. Elke was the table-setter for the Saints in their four-game sweep of Montana State Billings reaching base 10 times in 14 plate appearances. Elke had four hits in eight official at bats. He also walked six times, scored four runs and stole six bases. Pitcher – Michael Ward, Western Oregon (6-4, 225, Sr., Eugene, OR – South Eugene) allowed just five hits and an unearned run in hurling the Wolves to a 4-1 win over nationally eighth-ranked Chico State.

Week of Mar. 14-21: Player - Jeff Ridgeway, Montana State Billings (OF, 6-0, 195, Sr., Billings, MT – College of Southern Idaho) had six hits in 14 at bats as the Yellowjackets split four games at Northwest Nazarene. Among his hits were two home runs. He also scored five runs and drove in five and had slugging and on-base percentages of .857 and .500, respectively. Pitcher – Jason Wilson, Western Oregon (6-1, 190, Jr., Bend, OR – Summit & Chemeketa) allowed just two hits in seven innings in pitching the Wolves to a 6-0 win over Saint Martin's. Wilson walked three and fanned seven.

Week of Mar. 22-27: Player – Derek Bettinson, Northwest Nazarene (1B, 6-0, 195, Jr., Boise, ID – Centennial & Blue Mountain) accounted for 10 runs, scoring six and driving in four as the Crusaders scored 56 runs in a four-game sweep of the Academy of Art. Bettinson had nine hits, including four doubles, in 14 at bats. He also walked five times. Pitcher – Michael McIver, Saint Martin's (6-10, Sr., Olympia, WA – Capital) hurled his team to a 5-1 win in the opener of their four-game series with Central Washington. McIver, who leads the GNAC in earned run average (2.55), allowed just five hits and one run in six innings. He didn't walk a batter and fanned four.

Week of Mar. 28-Apr. 3: Player - Aaron Headrick, Western Oregon (2B, 5-11, 165, Sr., Cupertino, CA – Skagit Valley) batted .353 (6 of 17) and had four RBI as the Wolves won three of four games at Northwest Nazarene. Among his hits were three doubles. Pitcher – Kody Kennedy, MSU Billings (5-10, 175, Sr., Butte, MT – Miles CC) tossed a two-hit shutout against Central Washington striking out nine in the nine-inning game and lowering his conference game ERA to a GNAC best 1.10. In three conference games, he has allowed just seven hits in 16 1/3 innings.

Week of Apr. 4-10: Player - Ty Windall, Northwest Nazarene (OF, 5-11, 165, Sr., Davis, CA – Cosumnes River JC) had seven hits in 16 at bats and stole seven bases leading Northwest Nazarene to three wins in four contests against Central Washington. Windall, who scored five runs in the series, leads the GNAC with 31 steals and has stolen 35 in a row without being caught dating back to the 2010 season. Pitcher – Grady Wood, Western Oregon (6-2, 195, Jr., Eugene, OR – Junction City & Chemeketa) blanked 16-time NAIA national champion Lewis-Clark State 1-0 on two hits. Wood didn't walk a batter and struck out five. He retired the first 17 batters he faced and faced just a total of 28, one over the minimum.

Week of Apr. 11-17: Player - Aaron Headrick, Western Oregon (2B-DH, 5-11, 165, Sr., Cupertino, CA – Skagit Valley CC) had eight hits in 14 at bats and either scored or drove in almost half of his team's runs (12 of 26) as they swept a four-game series with Saint Martin's to move into a first-place tie with the Saints. Headrick, who had four of WOU's eight doubles, scored seven runs and drove in five, both series highs. He had a RBI single to snap a 2-2 ninth-inning tie in Sunday's 5-2 win. Then on Monday, he had five hits in six at bats to key a doubleheader sweep. Pitcher – Cam Nobles, Western Oregon (6-1, 185, Sr., Mills Creek, WA – Jackson) and Sean McDonald, Northwest Nazarene (5-9, 160, Jr., Boise, ID). .Nobles allowed just one earned run in eight innings in Sunday's extra-inning game. Noble gave up seven hits, while walking two and striking out four. McDonald pitched a six-hit, seven-inning shutout in defeating Montana State Billings 6-0 on Friday. McDonald, who walked one and struck out three, lowered his ERA to 1.85. That would be the second lowest in the conference, however, he currently is one inning short of qualifying to be ranked.

Week of Apr. 18-24: Player - Daniel Dillard, Western Oregon (OF, 6-3, 220, Sr., Olalla, WA – South Kitsap & Pierce) extended his hitting streak to a GNAC season-best 13 games to lead the Wolves to a four-game road sweep of Montana State Billings. Dillard had nine hits in 15 at bats, scored six runs and drove in 12 as WOU outscored MSUB 41-8. Among his hits were four doubles and two home runs as he struggled for a 1.267 percentage. Pitcher – Michael Ward, Western Oregon (6-4, 225, Sr., Eugene, OR – South Eugene) had his first no-run outing of the season blanking the Yellowjackets on five hits over seven innings in Saturday's 12-1 nine-inning victory. Ward walked two and fanned eight in lowering his season ERA to 2.51 which ranks second in the GNAC only to teammate Kirk Lind's 1.32 mark.

Week of Apr. 25-May 1: Player – Sean McDonald, Northwest Nazarene (OF-P, 5-9, 160, Jr., Boise, ID) batted and pitched the Crusaders to a 3-1 series win against Saint Martin's. McDonald had seven hits in 18 at bats and had a series-high five RBIs. He also tossed a two-hitter in Friday's 3-1 win. On the season, McDonald is hitting .324 and has a 4-1 record and a 1.76 earned run average, which ranks second in the conference. Pitcher – Palmer Brown, Central Washington (6-3, 225, Sr., Sacramento, CA – Wenatchee Valley) allowed just five hits in defeating Western Oregon 4-2, snapping the Wolves' 11-game win streak and their 15-game win streak against the Wildcats. Brown didn't walk a batter and fanned three in the nine-inning contest that took just 1 hour, 43 minutes to play.

Week of May 2-9: Player - Jeff Ridgeway, Montana State Billings (OF, 6-0, 195, Sr., Billings, MT – C. of Southern Idaho) and Kelly Gau, Central Washington (2B-SS, 5-10, 175, Sr., Woodinville, WA – CC of Spokane) had nearly identical numbers as their teams split a four-game series last weekend in Billings. Both players had eight hits in 16 at bats and drove in three runs. Gau scored more runs (7-5), but Ridgeway had more extra-base hits (a double and two triples compared to Gau's two doubles) and a higher slugging average (.813 to .625). Gau, however, had a better on-base percentage (.550 to .529). In conference games, Ridgeway leads the GNAC in batting average (.371), while Gau is the leader in hits (40), ranks second in runs scored (28) and is third in average (.360). Pitcher – Grady Wood, Western Oregon (6-2, 195, Jr., Eugene, OR – Junction City & Chemeketa) pitched a one-hit 4-0 shutout against Northwest Nazarene to join WOU's Josh Samter (2002) and NNU's Steven Schutte (2004) as the only pitchers in GNAC history to toss a complete-game nine-inning one-hitter. WOU's Blake Keitzman and Rye Phillips combined for a nine-inning, one-hitter in 2009. In conference games, Wood leads the GNAC in victories (6) and ERA (1.42).

Week of May 9-15: Player - None. Pitcher – Michael Ward, Western Oregon (6-4, 225, Sr., Eugene, OR – South Eugene) tossed a one-hitter, walking one and striking out nine in the Wolves' 2-1 win over Montana State Billings. Ward combined with MSUB's Kody Kennedy, who pitched a two-hitter, for the lowest total hit game in GNAC history. The one-hitter was the third for the Western Oregon pitching staff during a six-game stretch to close out the regular-season. In the first nine seasons of the GNAC, conference pitchers had combined to toss just nine one-hitters.

Week of Apr. 1-7: Player – Brody Miller, Montana State Billings (2B, 5-9, 175, So., Missoula, MT – Sentinel) had 13 hits in 20 at bats, scored eight runs and drove in 10 as the Yellowjackets split a four-game series with first-place Western Oregon. Miller, who struck out just once, hit two home runs. He also handled 24 chances at second base (11 putouts, 13 assists) without committing an error. Pitcher – Aaron Vaughan, Northwest Nazarene (5-10, 185, Jr., Tucson, AZ – Pusch Ridge Christian) tossed a six-hit complete game defeating Cal State Dominguez Hills 4-2. Vaughan, who threw just 86 pitches in his win, walked one and fanned six.

Week of Apr. 8-14: Player – Marc Garza, Central Washington (3B, 6-0, 205, Sr., Othello, WA) and Scott David, Western Oregon (C, Sr., Pleasanton, CA) Garza had 13 hits in 28 at bats, scored seven runs and drove in six leading the Wildcats to six wins in eight games. He also handled 17 chances at the hot corner (3 putouts, 14 assists) without committing an error and participated in three double plays. David batted .533 (8 of 15) in a four-game series sweep of Northwest Nazarene. He caught all four games and didn't allow a stolen base as the Wolf pitching staff carved out a microscopic 1.12 earned run average allowing just five runs in 32 innings. Pitcher – Spenser Watkins, Western Oregon (6-1, 185, Jr., Scottsdale, AZ) blanked Northwest Nazarene 6-0 on five hits, while fanning a GNAC season-high 12 batters. Spencer leads the GNAC in both earned run average (3.07) and wins (6). Watkins was also selected as the National Collegiate Baseball Writers (NCBWA) Pitcher of the Week.

Week of Apr. 15-21: Player – Austin Rue, Montana State Billings (OF, 5-9, 168, Sr., Clancy, MT – Miles CC) and Blake Miller, Western Oregon (SS, 6-2, 195, Sr., Salem, OR – South Salem) ... Rue had nine hits in 15 at bats and produced a team high 13 runs (scoring eight and driving in five) in extending his hitting streak to 23 games, the fourth longest in GNAC history. Rue also walked five times from his leadoff slot in the lineup, posting a .714 on-base percentage, and did not strike out as MSUB split a four-game series with Northwest Nazarene. Two of his hits were doubles. Miller had 11 hits in 15 at bats as the Wolves split a four-game series with NAIA power Lewis-Clark State. Miller scored six runs and drove in nine. He had seven singles, two doubles, one triple and one home run. Pitcher – Samuel Paterson, Montana State Billings (5-9, 165, Sr., McMinnville, OR – Linn-Benton) tossed a three-hit shutout in a 16-0 win as MSUB reduced its magic number for securing a post-season playoff berth to one.

Week of Apr. 22-28: Player – Colby Robison, Montana State Billings (SS, 6-1, 195, Sr., Rexburg, ID – C. of Southern Idaho) and Kyle Sani, Central Washington (C, 6-1, 240, Sr., Kennewick, WA – Southridge & WWCC) ... Robison hit four home runs and drove in 16 runs to lead the Yellowjackets to a 3-1 series win against Central Washington, securing a post-season playoff berth for the Yellowjackets. Robison had five hits, including two home runs and tied a GNAC single-game record with nine RBI in a 20-8 win over Central Washington Friday. He followed that up with two more home runs and seven RBI in a 15-4 win Saturday. He finished the series with nine hits in 16 at bats, scoring seven runs. Defensively, he handled 21 chances at shortstop (5 putouts, 16 assists) without committing an error. On the season,

Robison leads the GNAC with 50 RBI and has eight home runs. Sani hit five home runs to tie the GNAC single-season record for home runs of 17. He had a total of eight hits in 15 at bats, scored seven runs and drove in 11. Three of his home runs came in Friday's 17-7 victory. That matched the GNAC single-game record for a conference game. Shane Schoenberg of Saint Martin's also hit three in a conference contest against CWU on Mar. 1, 2008. Pitcher – Zach Nuno, Western Oregon (6-2, 175, Sr., Laguno Beach, CA – Saddleback) allowed three hits in six innings, fanning 10 in a 18-0 shutout of Saint Martin's.

Week of Apr. 29-May 5: Baseball: Player – Bobby Twedt, Saint Martin's (2B, 5-11, 185, Sr., Mount Vernon, WA) collected six hits in 12 at bats, scored four runs and drove in three as the Saints won three of four games with Northwest Nazarene almost doubling their season conference win total. Twedt, who also drew three walks and had a .583 slugging percentage and a .625 on-base percentage in the series. Pitcher – AJ Burke, Western Oregon (6-3, 210, Sr., Hillsboro, OR – Glencoe & Linn-Benton) blanked Central Washington on four hits in a 9-0 win. Burke didn't walk anyone and struck out nine.

Week of Jan. 27 – Feb. 2: Player - Josh Potter, CWU (1B, 6-3, Sr., Des Moines, WA – Mt. Rainier/Pierce College/Campbellsville) hit 5-for-8 on the weekend with a pair of doubles, two runs scored and two RBI as the Wildcats split a doubleheader with San Francisco State. Potter did not strike out and notched a slugging percentage of .875 with his offensive production. In addition, Potter played flawless defense at first base, logging 15 put outs and one assists with no errors in his team-high 16 chances. Pitcher - Matt Minich, WOU (LHP, 5-11, Sr., Kennewick, WA – Kamiakin/Columbia Basin College/Hawaii Pacific) threw four scoreless innings against No. 18-ranked Cal State Monterey Bay on Saturday, earning the victory in the seven-inning second half of the Wolves' doubleheader. Minich allowed just two hits while striking out three batters in the solid effort. His outing helped WOU recover from a 15-0 loss in the first game on Saturday, and pushed the Wolves to the 4-3 victory that helped his team earn a split on the first weekend of the 2014 season.

Week of Feb. 3-9: Player - Daniel McNabb, Western Oregon (OF, 5-11, Sr., Pasadena, CA – Rancho Cucamonga) had seven hits in 13 at bats and produced a total of 10 runs, scoring three and driving in seven, as the Wolves won 3-of-4 games including two over nationally-ranked Cal State Monterey Bay. Pitcher – Andrew Groves, Northwest Nazarene (5-11, Jr., Mukilteo, WA – Kamiak) pitched four scoreless innings in relief – 6-through-9 – in a 3-2, 11-inning loss at Hawaii Pacific on Saturday. Groves, who allowed just two hits, walked two and fanned four.

Week of Feb. 10-16: Player: Kasey Bielec, Central Washington (INF, 5-11, Jr., Port Orchard, WA – North Mason) went 6-for-13 with two home runs, four RBI and 12 total bases as the Wildcats captured 3-of-4 games on the road from the Academy of Art last week. Bielec led the GNAC with five runs scored last week, and also drew two walks while striking out just twice in 16 plate appearances. The junior started all four games at third base, recording 13 assists and one put out in 15 total chances on the weekend. Pitcher: Aaron Vaughn, Northwest Nazarene (RHP, 5-11, Sr., Tucson, AZ – Pusch Ridge Christian Academy) struck out 10 batters through seven innings in his lone start of the week, while allowing six hits and just one walk. Vaughn earned the win in the Crusaders' 7-3 triumph over CSU Dominguez Hills, which marked the team's first victory of the season and the first in the NCAA DII career of head coach Rocke Musgraves. Vaughn was credited with a complete game as the game was the second in a 9-inning/ 7-inning doubleheader, and only two of the three runs he allowed were earned.

Week of Feb. 17 – 23: Player – Brad Birch, Montana State Billings (3B, 6-2, Sr., Eugene, OR – Treasure Valley CC) went 6-for-14 with two doubles, a home run, five runs scored, three RBI and 11 total bases last week in the Yellowjackets' series against Dixie State. In Game 2 on Saturday, Birch's seventh-inning solo home run proved to be the decisive factor in MSUB's first win of 2014, 5-4 over DSU. Birch also walked once and was hit by a pitch once, pushing his on-base percentage to .500 (8-for-16) on the week. The senior struck out just twice on the week while slugging .786, and he also handled all 18 chances at third base – three put outs and 15 assists – flawlessly. Pitcher – Matt Eames, Montana State Billings (RHP, 6-4, Sr., Billings, MT – Columbia Basin College) tossed seven stellar innings for the Yellowjackets against Dixie State on Friday, logging a no-decision in the tough 2-1 loss to the Red Storm. Eames allowed one run and three hits with one walk and three strikeouts for MSUB. Eames did not allow a hit until the fourth inning, and the senior lowered his season ERA to 4.09 with the performance.

2014 CONTINUED

Week of Feb. 24 – March 2: Player – Parker Miles, Western Oregon (2B, 5-9, Sr., Salem, OR – UC Santa Barbara) hit 9-for-19 with four runs scored, three doubles and seven RBI as WOU won 3-of-4 from Central Washington in the teams' GNAC-opening series. Batting in the third spot in the order, Miles collected at least one hit in each of WOU's games against the Wildcats, turning in a solid 3-for-4 performance with two runs scored and two RBI in the Wolves' narrow 5-3 win in Game 3 of the series. In the final game, Miles scored the game-winning run in the bottom of the eighth inning to push WOU to a dramatic 3-2 win and the series victory. Miles also handled 14 chances at second base without an error, turning in 11 assists and three put outs on the weekend. Pitcher – Eric Huson, Western Oregon (RHP, 6-3, Jr., Forest Grove, OR – Mt. Hood CC) earned his second victory of the season with a stellar 8-inning start against Central Washington on Saturday. Huson scattered six hits and one walk over his eight frames, allowing one earned run and collecting six strikeouts. Huson retired 12-straight batters over a four-inning stretch, silencing the CWU bats from the second-through-fifth innings. The junior finished strong, striking out three of the final eight hitters he faced en route to the win.

Week of March 3-9: Player – Alex Bielaski, Saint Martin's (OF/1B, 6-0, Sr., Bellevue, WA - Bellevue) batted .688 (11-for-16) in a four-game set against Dixie State, including four doubles and eight RBI. Bielaski totaled 15 bases and a slugging percentage of .938, and did not strikeout on the weekend. In SMU's lone victory of the week, Bielaski went 4-for-5 with two doubles and five RBI in a 14-3 result over DSU. The senior left fielder handled all 12 of his chances flawlessly, with 11 put outs and an assist. Pitcher – Brandon Williams, Central Washington (RHP, 6-0, Jr., Auburn, WA – Mount Hood CC) tossed eight stellar innings and earned a victory to help Central Washington to a split with Northwest Nazarene last weekend. In the opening game of the series, Williams was untouchable with 15 strikeouts and no walks in CWU's 6-1 triumph over the Crusaders. The junior allowed just six hits and one unearned run in the dominant performance as he improved his season record to 3-1 and lowered his season ERA to 2.51.

Week of March 10-16: Player – Kevin Toon, Montana State Billings (DH, R/R, 6-2, So., Walla Walla, WA – Walla Walla CC), batted .615 (8-for-13) on the weekend, with six runs scored, four doubles, five RBI and a dozen total bases. Toon slugged .923 while drawing three walks, being hit by a pitch and striking out just once. His .706 on-base percentage (12-for-17) led the conference and was more than 100 points higher than the next closest player, and Toon was also successful in his only stolen base attempt of the weekend. On Saturday, Toon helped the 'Jackets to an 8-5 win over Saint Martin's by going 1-for-3 with two RBI, two runs scored and also drawing two walks. His two-run double in the first inning got MSUB off to an early lead and kicked off what turned into an 8-0 lead by the fourth. Toon was even better in MSUB's second win of the day, again getting the Yellowjackets on the board with a first-inning RBI base hit. Toon finished the final game of the series 3-for-4 with two RBI and two runs scored. Pitcher – Josh Moss, Saint Martin's (LHP, L/L, 6-1, Jr., Tenino, WA – Rochester) was instrumental in the Saints' 3-2 victory over Montana State Billings last weekend as the teams split a 4-game series. Moss got the start in Game 2 of the series, pitching eight innings and allowing just two unearned runs on four hits. Moss also struck out seven batters against just two walks, but earned the no decision as the Saints scored the winning run in the bottom of the ninth after he had exited. Moss retired the first six batters he faced, but two errors each in the third and sixth innings allowed MSUB to score its only runs and erased Moss' chance to earn the win.

Week of March 17-23: Player – Parker Miles, Western Oregon (2B, R/R, 5-9, Sr., Salem, OR – UC Santa Barbara) hit 8-for-16 on the weekend with four doubles, three runs scored and a pair of RBI as the Wolves took a four-game series from Saint Martin's 3-1. Miles logged a dozen total bases and drew a pair of walks, leading to an on-base percentage of .556 over the series. The second baseman also stole a pair of bases and struck out just once in 18 plate appearances, while handling all 12 of his fielding chances perfectly. On the season, Miles has committed just one error in 74 chances for a fielding percentage of .986. Pitcher – Eric Huson, Western Oregon (RHP, R/R, 6-3, Jr., Forest Grove, OR – Mt. Hood CC) tossed a two-hit shutout in the Wolves' 5-0 win over Saint Martin's on Sunday, striking out five batters and walking none in the stellar performance. Huson improved to 4-0 on the season and the shutout was the first of the season in the GNAC. Among qualifying starters, he has the lowest ERA at 1.00 and the lowest opponent batting average at .171. The junior has struck out 26 batters over his 45.0 innings, and only eight of the 27 hits he has allowed have been for extra bases (all doubles). Huson's 0.82 WHIP is also tops in the GNAC among qualifying starters and he is one of just two starters to have a sub-1.00 mark in that category (Noah Starr, NNU, 0.91).

Week of March 24-30: Player – Luke Reinschmidt, Montana State Billings (CF, R/R, 5-11, So., Billings, MT) hit for the cycle in the Yellowjackets' 16-7 win over Northwest Nazarene on Friday. Reinschmidt logged an RBI double in the first inning, and singled up the middle to lead off the third. The sophomore's home run came in the fifth inning, with a solo shot to right field that pushed MSUB in front 10-2. Saving the toughest leg for last, Reinschmidt shot an RBI triple to center field in the top of the ninth to spark a three-run Yellowjacket rally. The center fielder handled all four of his chances over the two-game stretch error-free, and finished the week with a slugging percentage of 1.250. Pitcher – Stuart Fewel, Central Washington (RHP, R/R, 6-5, Sr., Portland, OR – Lower Columbia CC) tossed a complete game, propelling the Wildcats to a 5-1 victory over Saint Martin's last week. Fewel allowed four hits and one earned run while striking out two batters and walking none in nine innings. The senior retired the first six Saints batters and 12 of the first 13 he faced. Only two runners advanced past first base on the day, as an SMU home run in the fifth inning was the lone blemish against Fewel.

Week of March 31 – April 6: Player – Anthony Flatt, Northwest Nazarene (1B/C, R-R, 6-1, Jr., Mill Creek, WA – Bellevue College) batted 7-for-16 with four RBI and three runs scored to help the Crusaders to a 3-1 series victory over Saint Martin's. Flatt also drew a pair of walks and was hit by a pitch for an on-base percentage of .526 on the series. The junior first baseman also handled all 11 of his chances without an error, recording 10 put outs and an assist. Flatt has now hit safely in six straight games and has recorded multiple hits in four consecutive contests. Pitcher – Zach Carter, Saint Martin's (RHP, R-R, 6-0, Jr., Camas, WA - Camas) earned his fifth win of the season, turning in a complete game against Northwest Nazarene on Thursday. Carter allowed one run on six hits with six strikeouts against no walks in his nine innings of work. The junior allowed just one extra base hit – a double – and logged his second complete game of the season in the 2-1 victory.

Week of April 7 – April 13: Player – Ethan Sterkel, Central Washington (RF, R-R, 6-2, Sr., Ellensburg, WA - Ellensburg) went 11-for-16 with two doubles and a home run to lead Central Washington to a 3-1 series victory over Northwest Nazarene last weekend. Sterkel scored three runs and tallied 16 total bases, and didn't strike out in 17 plate appearances. The right fielder was instrumental in the Wildcats' first win of the week, batting 4-for-4 and driving in three runs. Sterkel's eighth inning solo home run brought CWU within a run at 6-5, and his RBI double in the ninth pushed the Wildcats ahead 8-7 in the eventual 10-7 triumph. Sterkel went 3-for-5 in CWU's 6-5 win in Game 3, and scored the first run in the Wildcats' series-clinching 6-1 win in Game 4. Sterkel played error free defense in right field, handling all six of his chances without incident. Sterkel's effort helped the Wildcats move into sole possession of second place in the GNAC standings and keep pace with Western Oregon, which also went 3-1 on the weekend. Pitcher – Aaron Vaughn, Northwest Nazarene (RHP, R-R, 5-11, Sr., Tucson, AZ – Pusch Ridge Christian Academy) twirled a seven-inning complete game shutout, propelling the Crusaders to their lone victory of the week in a 7-0 win over CWU. Vaughn struck out eight batters and allowed just three hits against just two walks. The senior right hander improved to 8-1 on the season and lowered his GNAC second-best ERA to 2.25. Vaughn didn't allow a base hit until the fourth inning, and three times pitched out of a jam after allowing the leadoff runner to reach base. Vaughn ended his sixth complete game in emphatic fashion, allowing a base hit in the top of the seventh before striking out the next three batters in succession to finish the game. Vaughn's 58 strikeouts are the second-most in the conference, and his eight wins are a GNAC high.

Week of April 14-20: Player – Chandler Tracy, Saint Martin's (C, R-R, 6-2, Jr., Newcastle, WA - Liberty) homered three times in a 3-1 series victory over Montana State Billings to tie the GNAC all-time career home run record with 29. Tracy added a double and a triple to his three home runs, as five of his six hits in the series went for extra bases. The junior also drove in nine runs and scored five, while drawing four walks and being hit by a pitch. His two-home run performance in Game 3 of the series was the first multi-homer game of the season in the conference, and all three of Tracy's home runs came on the final day of the series (Saturday). Tracy's offensive output was crucial in keeping Saint Martin's in contention for a GNAC postseason tournament berth, as the Saints won three out of four games against MSUB on the road. Tracy also played error free defense with 13 putouts and three assists at catcher. With the three home runs, Tracy upped his GNAC-leading total to nine on the season, and his 27 RBI are fifth-most in the conference. Pitcher – Clark McKittrick, Western Oregon (LHP, L-L, 6-3, Jr., Idaho Falls, ID – Linn Benton CC) entered a 3-2 game against Northwest Nazarene with the bases loaded in the fourth inning and struck out the final batter of the inning to strand the three runners and preserve the lead. McKittrick pitched a scoreless fifth inning, and the Wolves went on to beat NNU 5-3 in Game 2 of the series. The victory was crucial in helping WOU to a four-game sweep, as the two run win was the closest margin of the series. McKittrick did not allow a hit and struck out two batters in the performance, earning his fourth victory of the season.

Week of April 21-27: Player – Eric Tinnell, Central Washington (2B, R-R, 5-11, Sr., Ephrata, WA – Western Oregon) helped the Wildcats to a 3-1 series victory over Montana State Billings by hitting 8-for-18 with two doubles, a home run, six runs scored and four RBI. Tinnell totaled 13 total bases and a slugging percentage of .722 on the weekend, while drawing two walks and striking out zero times in 21 plate appearances. The senior second baseman also stole two bases for CWU, and converted all 11 of his chances defensively without an error. Tinnell was part of the Wildcats' come-from-behind victory in the series finale, as he scored the go-ahead run in the top of the seventh inning on Saturday. His run was the first of four scored in the inning by CWU, as the Wildcats broke a 3-3 tie and finished strong for a 7-3 victory. Pitcher – Colben McGuire, Northwest Nazarene (RHP, R-R, 5-11, Jr., Idaho Falls, ID – Lane CC) took a tough 1-0 loss against Lewis-Clark State last weekend, despite pitching a stellar complete game for the Crusaders. McGuire struck out four and did not walk a batter over his nine innings of work, giving NNU every opportunity to earn a series split with a victory. McGuire retired nine batters in a row during a stretch between the fifth and eighth innings, and did not surrender the game-winning run until a two-out double in the ninth inning. NNU loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with the chance to give McGuire the win, but the Crusaders came up just short as the game ended on a called third strike.

Week of April 28 – May 4: Player – Brad Birch, Montana State Billings (3B, R-R, 6-2, Sr., Eugene, OR – Treasure Valley CC) notched walk-off base hits for the Yellowjackets in the two final games of his collegiate career. The senior third baseman singled up the middle in the bottom of the ninth inning to push MSUB to a 6-5 win over Northwest Nazarene on Saturday. In the second game, Birch ended the Yellowjackets' season on a high note with a base hit to left field in the ninth inning to complete a 3-2 extra-inning victory. Overall on the week, Birch went 11-for-25 with two doubles, a triple and four RBI in six games. Birch totaled 15 total bases and scored four runs, with an on-base percentage of .481 and a slugging percentage of .600. Pitcher – Josh Moss, Saint Martin's (LHP, L-L, 6-1, Jr., Tenino, WA - Rochester) pitched the Saints to a critical 3-1 victory over Central Washington, logging a 7-inning complete game with no walks and a pair of strikeouts. Moss scattered eight hits throughout his performance, and the Wildcats' only run came in the sixth inning on a base hit. Moss was excellent under pressure, pitching out of dangerous situations in the second, third, and fifth innings leaving runners in scoring position on base.

Week of Feb. 2-8: Player - Kyle Thomson, Northwest Nazarene (OF, 5-7, Sr., Enumclaw, WA) accounted for nearly a quarter of his team's runs in the Treasure Valley Icebreaker. Thomson recorded nine hits and also scored what proved to be the winning run in a 4-3 victory over future GNAC member Concordia. Four of his nine hits were doubles and he also drove in five runs. Thomson was perfect in the field, recording 12 putouts and one assist without an error. He also stole two bases. Pitcher - Brandon Williams, Central Washington (RHP, 6-0, Sr., Auburn, WA) pitched a no-hitter in his first start of the season defeating Saint Martin's 9-0. In seven innings, Williams recorded 13 strikeouts and didn't walk a batter. SMU's only two base runners came on an error and hit batter.

Week of Feb. 9-15: Player – Chandler Tracy, Saint Martin's (C, 6-2, Sr., Bellevue, WA - Liberty) had five hits in 15 at bats, including three solo home runs as the Saints won one of four games at the College of Idaho. The home runs were the 34th, 35th and 36th of his career, seven more than anyone else has hit in conference history. His career slugging average of .613 ranks ninth. He also drew five walks, earning a .500 on-base percentage. Pitcher – Jake Reppert, Northwest Nazarene (6-5, Sr., Monroe, WA – Bellevue CC) scattered five hits and struck out five in pitching the Crusaders to a 6-0 shutout of Hawaii Pacific. It was his first career win for the Crusaders.

Week of Feb. 16-22: Player - Luke Reinschmidt, Montana State Billings (CF, 5-11, Jr., Billings, MT) hit four home runs and had 13 RBIs in eight games. Five of Reinschmidt's 12 hits were extra-base hits as he ended the week with a .879 slugging percentage. The centerfielder also scored nine times while drawing four walks, stealing two bases and recording 12 putouts. Pitcher - Michael Bennett, Western Oregon (RHP, 6-0, Jr., Bandon, OR) pitched 5 1/3 scoreless innings against NAIA No. 2 Lewis-Clark State in the Wolves first shutout of the season. Bennett faced four batters or less in three of his five plus innings while striking out five. He also held the Warriors, a team batting .307 this season, to a .200 batting average.

Week of Feb. 23-March 1: Player - Darren Honeysett, Central Washington (OF, 6-0, Jr., Port Coquitlam, BC) hit three home runs and drove in eight runs in two wins over MSU Billings. Honeysett, who now leads the GNAC in slugging percentage at .871, also scored four runs and stole three bases. Pitcher – Riley Moore, Saint Martin's (RHP, 5-9, Fr., Sherwood, OR) pitched a complete-game shutout in a 1-0 win over the Wolves this weekend. In his seven innings pitched, Moore allowed only 4 hits while striking out five in his first win of the season.

Week of Mar. 2-8: Player – Garret Harpole, Western Oregon (3B, 6-1, Sr., Elmira, OR), drove in eight runs, seven on Sunday as the Wolves won three of four games with pre-season conference favorite Central Washington. Harpole went 7-of-14 (.500) on the weekend with two doubles and a triple. In Sunday's doubleheader alone the senior went 5-of-7, scoring four runs and driving in seven. Pitcher – Colben McGuire, Northwest Nazarene (RHP, 6-0, Sr., Idaho Falls, ID), pitched a two-hitter against Saint Martin's Saturday to pick up his third win of the season. In his nine-innings pitched, McGuire struck out a season-high 11 batters while allowing just one run to cross the plate. Both of the hits the senior allowed were singles.

Week of Mar. 9-15: Player - Ryan Atkinson, Central Washington (2B-OF, 5-9, Jr., North Bend, WA – Mount Si) hit for a .533 average while driving in eight runs to lead the Wildcats to three wins in a four-game series against NCBWA regionally ninth-ranked Northwest Nazarene. Atkinson had three doubles and scored four runs to help the Wildcats take their first series since Feb. 7-8. He also hit two home runs in the third and fifth innings of the series finale, driving in four of the Wildcats' six runs. Pitcher - Jesse Pratt, Western Oregon (RHP, 6-5, Sr., Monmouth, OR) pitched his second consecutive complete game in the Wolves' 8-1 win over Montana State Billings. The senior shut down the top-ranked offense in the GNAC, going seven innings while allowing two hits and one run which was unearned. He also struck out six batters while forcing batters to hit into two double plays. In his last 14 innings, Pratt has allowed just four runs (3 earned), six hits while striking out 17 hitters.

2015 CONTINUED

Week of Mar. 16-22: Player - Kyle Durbin, Montana State Billings (1B-3B, 6-1, Jr., Idaho Falls, ID) and Carl Svanevik, Saint Martin's (OF, 6-3, Sr., Woodinville, WA) ... Both Durbin and Svanevik helped their teams to their first series sweeps of the year. Durbin capped off a few comebacks on Friday as he hit two game-winning doubles. The junior broke a 3-3 tie in Game 1 with a two-run double and did it again in Game 2, hitting another two-run double to put the Yellowjackets on top after trailing 3-2 in the seventh. He also hit his first home run of the series. In the four-game sweep of Northwest Nazarene, Durbin batted .333 and also had seven RBIs, two sacrifice hits and scored two runs. He also handled 17 chances defensively without an error...Svanevik was the offensive catalyst for the Saints' sweep at Central Washington, going 8-of-16 while contributing to over a third of the Saints 23 runs scored. Svanevik had nine RBIs, while also hitting three home runs in two days to boost his slugging percentage to 1.125 for the weekend. The senior outfielder also scored four runs in the Saints' first series sweep of the Wildcats in Ellensburg since 2002. Pitcher – Cody Cooper, Montana State Billings (RHP, 6-4, So., Bozeman, MT) earned his first win of the season in a 8-0 win Saturday. Over his seven innings, Cooper struck out a season-high 10 batters while only allowing four hits and one walk. All of his four hits were singles as well.

Week of Mar. 23-29: Player – Brody Miller, Montana State Billings (2B, 5-8, Sr., Missoula, MT) and Tyler Davis, Northwest Nazarene (2B, 6-0, Jr., Orinda, CA) ... Both Miller and Davis launched three home runs in leading their teams to three victories in their respective conference series. Miller opened the Yellowjackets series Friday against Saint Martin's going 3-for-4 with four runs scored and three RBIs, hitting two home runs. His third slam of the series Saturday put three runs on the board and gave MSUB the one-run advantage in its 11-10 win. On the weekend, Miller went 6-for-14 with eight RBIs, eight runs scored and five walks while making a perfect 24 plays in the field...Davis scored the game-winning run in three of the Crusaders' four games against conference-leader Western Oregon. The second baseman homered twice in Game 1, scoring the Crusaders first and last runs of the 7-5 victory. He also hit the game-winning home run in the sixth inning of the third game of the series. Davis also hit safely in all four games of Northwest Nazarene's series win. In the Friday-Saturday series, Davis went 9-for-17 with seven RBIs and four runs scored while recording eight putouts and six assists on the field. Pitcher – Cory Welch, Central Washington (RHP/OF, 6-0, Sr., Las Vegas, NV); made two appearances in the Wildcats' Oregon and California road trip, winning one game while recording a save in another. He pitched both games in Sunday's series finale at Holy Names. In the morning matchup Welch came-in for a four-out save, striking out two of the four batters he faced. It was Welch's sixth save of the season, which leads the conference, and his 17th career save which is third all-time in the GNAC. The senior also started Game 4 of the series, striking out five while only allowing five hits and one run in five innings. It was Welch's second victory of the season. He also drove in two runs and scored three times helping his team at the plate.

Week of Mar. 30-Apr. 5: Player – Jesse Hilyard, Northwest Nazarene (OF, 6-4, Fr., Klamath Falls, OR) scored three of his six runs, including two game-winners over Saint Martin's Saturday. The left fielder doubled down the left field line, his second of the day, to put himself in scoring position in a 4-3 win in the opening game of the series. On the week including two losses to NAIA power Lewis-Clark State, Hilyard went 6-for-15 while driving in five runs and scoring six himself. He also registered three walks and 10 putouts. Hilyard added two home runs against LCSC. Pitcher – Jesse Pratt, Western Oregon (RHP, 6-5, Sr., Monmouth, OR) won his fifth straight start blanking Central Washington 10-0 Friday. He retired the first 16 batters he faced while allowing just a single hit. He walked one and recorded eight strikeouts in the seven-inning game, lowering his ERA to

Week of Apr. 6-12: Player – Brody Miller, Montana State Billings (2B, 5-8, Sr., Missoula, MT) reached base 14 times in 22 plate appearances, hitting four home runs including two grand slams. He is the seventh player in GNAC history to hit four home runs and only the third player to hit two grand slams in a conference series. In the first game of the series, the second baseman hit one of his two slams after the Yellowjackets fell behind 6-0 rallying the team to a 11-8 victory. Miller hit two home runs in Game 3 driving in six runs. In the fourth game, he was a perfect 4 of 4 at the plate with another two-run home run, falling just a triple shy of the cycle. On the weekend, Miller hit .556 (10-of-18), scored eight runs, drove in 14 and had three doubles, three walks and was hit by a pitch. Pitcher - Darrien Moran, Western Oregon (LHP, 6-0, Jr., Federal Way, WA) won his fourth game of the year in Saturday's opener against Saint Martin's, throwing a nine-inning complete game. Moran allowed only six hits while giving up one run on a fielder's choice in the ninth.

Moran faced four hitters or less in five of his nine innings. He also struck out six Saints while holding the team to a .182 batting average.

Week of Apr. 13-19: Player – Josh Hatfield, Northwest Nazarene (OF, 5-10, Jr., Meridian, ID) scored seven runs while going 10-for-15 at the plate. He launched three home runs and also had five RBI. In Saturday's doubleheader sweep of Central Washington, Hatfield had five hits in six at bats, scored five runs and drove in two. He also stole three bases and recorded 11 putouts. Pitcher – Ross Clevenger, Northwest Nazarene (RHP, 6-0, Fr., Eagle, ID) threw six innings of no-hit ball in their 4-0 Senior Day win Saturday. Clevenger was just two outs away from NNU's fifth-ever no-hitter before CWU's Jonathan Dailey broke up the no-hit bid with a one-hit single in the seventh. Clevenger recorded the win, his second of the week. He also picked up a win in the seven-pitcher shutout against the College of Idaho on Wednesday. On the week, Clevenger threw 8 1/3 innings, striking out 12 batters while allowing just two hits.

Week of Apr. 20-26: Player – Trevor Nix, Montana State Billings (C, 5-11, Sr., Tigard, OR) went 7-for-11 from the batter's box as the Yellowjackets won three of four games with Northwest Nazarene to move into a tie for first place in the GNAC with idle Western Oregon. Nix drove in eight runs and scored five. In Saturday's 16-0 win, Nix went 5-for-6 at the plate while driving in six runs and scoring two. He also homered in the game and finished a triple away from the cycle. The senior also hit two doubles on the weekend to finish with a four-game slugging percentage of 1.091. Pitcher – Tanner Johnson, Montana State Billings (RHP, 6-3, Jr., Belgrade, MT) and Zach Johnson, Central Washington (LHP, 6-0, Jr., Kirkland, WA) both pitched nine-inning complete-game shutouts. Tanner Johnson allowed three hits and fanned 10 batters. Zach Johnson also gave up three hits retiring 21 of the first 22 batters he faced. Both Johnson's threw their respective school's first nine-inning shutout this season. MSUB's was also the first nine-inning shutout since 2011.

Week of Apr. 27-May 4: Player - Marcus Hinkle, Western Oregon (SS, 6-0, Sr., Puyallup, WA) had eight hits in 19 at bats as Western Oregon won three of four games with Northwest Nazarene to earn the No. 2 seed in this week's GNAC Baseball Championships. Hinkle scored six runs and hit two doubles in the Wolves three wins. He also registered three RBIs reaching a total of 12 bases. In Saturday's opener against NNU, Hinkle missed the cycle by a home run, hitting a triple, double and a single in consecutive at bats. Pitcher – Brady Muller, Montana State Billings (LHP, 6-1, Sr., Billings, MT) threw his first complete-game of the season as he helped the Yellowjackets earn a series sweep of SMU and win the GNAC regular-season title. Muller threw all nine innings while allowing just six hits and one unearned run in the ninth inning. He also struck out six Saints in the victory. This was Muller's seventh game this year pitching at least seven innings while striking out five or more batters, leading that conference in that category.
